ROOSEVELT RULES THE CONVENTION

Vice-President Sherman Defeated For Temporary Chaiman at Saratoga.

OLD GUARD MADE A FIGHT

Day of Bitter and Acrimonious Speeches—Colonel Assailed in Address of Gruber—First of Series of Conflicts.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt rode today on the top wave of victory, defeating Vice President Sherman for temporary chairman of the Republican State convention and bowling over the old guard in the first engagement of a series of conflicts that are to come.

Col. Roosevelt was in his element. After he had named the members of the three important committees and the convention had adjourned to meet tomorrow, the colonel turned to the newspaper men and remarked: "I said 'frazzle,' you may recall, you may quote me on that."

At Troy yesterday the former President said he would beat his opponents to a frazzle. There were 1,012 votes cast in the convention, of which Col. Roosevelt received 567 and Vice President Sherman received 445, this electing the leader of the progressives by a majority of 122. Col. Roosevelt spoke feelingly of what President Taft had accomplished in his administration, saying that the laws passed reflect high credit on all who succeeded in putting them in their present shape upon the statute books; they represent an earnest of the achievement which is yet to come, and the beneficence and far reaching importance of this work done for the whole people measure the credit which is rightly due to the Congress and to our able, upright and distinguished President, William Howard Taft.

The spectators and many of the delegates warmly applauded the declaration of Col. Roosevelt for a direct primary plank.

Col. Roosevelt bitterly assailed the "bosses," declaring that "the difference between a boss and a leader is that the leader leads and the boss drives. The difference is that the leader holds his place by firing the conscience and appealing to the reason of his followers and that the boss holds his place by crooked and underhand manipulation."

Thunders of applause greeted the colonel as he was escorted to the speaker's stand by Vice President Sherman and Cornelius V. Collins and it was some time before he could proceed with his speech. Thanking the delegates for the honor that they had conferred on him, the colonel caused the greatest enthusiasm when he said, "you shall not have cause now or hereafter to regret what you have done."

It was a day for oratory; it was a day of bitter and acrimonious speech. With the opening of the convention State Chairman Woodruff defined the position of the old guard and announced that Mr. Sherman had been selected for temporary chairman. And then the real fight was on. Col. Abraham Gruber, of New York City, had been selected to fire the verbal shot of the old guard and his speech attacking the former President which was a bitter arraignment was often broken and drowned by hisses and jeers. No one enjoyed Gruber's speech more than Col. Roosevelt, who chuckled repeatedly. Once the pandemonium became so great that Col. Roosevelt leaped to his feet and asked for a full hearing for the speaker.

Comptroller William A. Prendergast, of New York City, was the champion of the progressive fight and made a warm and spirited reply to the old guard onslaught.

The convention had been well prepared for the outcome of the contest for temporary chairman William Barnes, Jr., leader of the old guard forces having early in the day conceded the election of Roosevelt. The roll call took what seemed an interminable time and nearly four hours had passed from the time of the opening before State Chairman Woodruff formally announced that Col. Roosevelt was the choice of the convention for temporary chairman.

The victory of Col. Roosevelt in the first counting of noes did not appear to dishearten the old guard for they continued their fight on the convention floor when the progressives submitted resolutions whereby the committees should be more by representatives from each Congressional district, the members to be named by the temporary chairman.

Seeing that this gave absolute power to Col. Roosevelt, Speaker Wadsworth, of the assembly, strongly opposed the resolution. The progressives, however were in the ascendancy and resolutions drafted by friends of Col. Roosevelt were adopted.

There being no contest before the convention, the make-up of the committee on credentials were without significance and it was quickly named and announced by Col. Roosevelt as was the committee on permanent organization. The committee on resolutions which was to thresh over the important direct primary plank, caused Col. Roosevelt to hold up the convention until he could go over the names before him. He called Representative Herbert Parsons, of New York, to the

TARIFF REQUESTS BURDEN TO BOARD

Manufacturers Anxious For Hearings Regarding Proposed Revision.

A PERPLEXING SITUATION

Swamped With Requests From All Parts of the Country—Will Not Comply With Demands. Statement Made.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The tariff board is swamped with requests for hearings from manufacturers and others who might be affected by a revision of any of the schedules of the present law. In the last few days the requests have grown to such volume that if the board were to grant them all now, it could be busy a year without touching the tariff.

After the Chemical Manufacturing Association sent an executive committee to Washington to confer with the board, the idea seemed to go out that the tariff board was taking the place of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives and that all the manufacturing interests ought to have agents on hand.

The situation assumed such an aspect that Chairman J. K. Emery and Alvah H. Sanders, of the board, after a conference today, gave out this statement:

"The impression seems to have gone out that the tariff board is to hold formal hearings such as have in the past been held by committees of Congress, for the purpose of taking testimony bearing upon tariff rates. This plan will not be adopted, at least not for the present.

"The function of the board is not legislative, nor even judicial. It is simply to study the various industries of the country with a view towards developing facts relating to the production of given commodities in the United States and competing countries.

"Up to the present time, the board has been engaged mainly in formulating general plans of procedure, and these have now been advanced to a point where, it may be stated, the board's inquiries will shortly be prosecuted in the field. The data gathered by field agents will in due course of time be carefully analyzed and considered by statisticians employed for that purpose. In addition to the matter of costs, the board expects to collect other important facts relating to production, prices and market conditions and when this is finished the results will be summarized and transmitted to the President.

"The only formal conferences that have been held by the board thus far have related simply to methods of procedure; the matter of whether duties are too high or too low, not being under discussion at all."

There is nothing, however, in the board's plan of procedure to prevent any one entitled to a hearing from getting it when the proper time comes. But for the present at least, the board and its experts will be too busy gathering material and assembling it for the President to begin any formal hearings or to listen to any argument for or against any change in duties.

PRESIDENT TAFT HOST.

Dinner Given Chinese Prince at White House Last Night.

Washington, Sept. 27.—President Taft was host at dinner tonight to His Imperial Highness, Prince Tsai Suun, head of the Imperial Chinese Naval Commission, now in Washington. There were 49 guests, including all of the members of the President's cabinet, with the exception of Secretary Dickinson who is in the Far East, the Chinese minister, and those comprising the Prince's entourage.

The White House dinner marked the close of a busy and eventful day for the distinguished visitor. Earlier in the day the Prince exchanged official visits with Secretary of State Knox and Secretary of the Navy Meyer. While at the Navy Department the Prince evinced much interest in the models of United States warships scattered through the halls of the building. The Prince was received by the President at the White House in the afternoon, and later in company with Assistant Secretary of State Chandler Hale, witnessed a special drill of cavalry at Fort Myer. The Prince seemed keenly interested in the maneuvers and did not disguise his admiration of the splendid exhibition of the troopers.

BOMBARDED HIS HOME.

Hundred of Shots Fired in Attempt To Kill Mine Superintendent.

Irwin, Pa. Sept. 27.—Over a hundred revolver and rifle shots were fired into the homes of Superintendent Levigood and Foreman John Olsen of the Pennsylvania Gas and Coal Company's mines at Claridge early today. The two families each of which includes half a dozen children, escaping injury by lying flat on the floor of their bed rooms while the bullets shattered their windows and mirrows and brought down the plaster. The attack was made by a large gang of men but although the State troopers hurried to the scene they had not been successful today in running down definitely any members of the shooting party. There has been a strike on in the Irwin coal fields since last March.

FUNERAL OF MAJ. B. F. DIXON

Will be Conducted This Afternoon.—Distinguished Honors Paid Late State Auditor Yesterday by Confederates.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 27.—The funeral of Major B. F. Dixon, late State Auditor, will be conducted from Edenton Street Methodist church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment thereafter in Oakwood cemetery.

This decision was reached this afternoon after the arrival of the out-of-town members of the family. In accordance with a request from the Council of State, the family permitted the remains to be placed in state in the rotunda of the State House this afternoon to remain there until the hour for the funeral tomorrow.

The remains were conveyed from the Dixon home at 4 o'clock this afternoon escorted by a delegation of Masons from the three Raleigh lodges and the State officers, headed by Governor Kitchin.

The Confederate Veterans of the Soldiers' Home were at the State House to meet the remains and received them with fitting ceremony, members of the old vets being delegated as a guard of honor.

The rotunda was draped in black and white with lovely groupings of palms, ferns and other appropriate plants. The casket was placed on a stand directly under the dome and there it was draped with State and National flags. On it were also placed Major Dixon's Masonic apron and the flag of his regiment in the Confederate army, the 14th North Carolina. Across these were laid his sword. Men specially detailed from the Raleigh company in the North Carolina National Guard are on guard tonight and will be until the hour for the funeral, when the company will contribute the military honors for the funeral. It is a notable fact that in addition to his numerous other positions of honor and trust Major Dixon had for two years been the president of the Blue and Gray, the National Association of Civil War Veterans, and he was deeply interested in the wiping out of all ill will between those who wore the Blue and the Gray.

THE SOUTHERN LIFE.

First Dividend Paid Yesterday—Cumberland and Robeson.

The following from yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer will be read with interest:

"The directors of the Southern Life Insurance Company today issued to the stockholders of the company a first dividend of 20 per cent. As the capital stock is $128,000, the amount so disbursed will be $25,000. The majority of the stockholders are in Cumberland and Robeson counties."

RICHMOND BANK WALL FALLS

Collapse Caused Serious Damage to First National Bank Building-Columns Fell Across Street—Excavation the Cause.

Richmond, Va. Sept. 27.—The east wall of the First National Bank building from top to bottom for a distance of fifteen to twenty-five feet from the front sank into the excavation for a projected skyscraper at that point about 8 o'clock this evening.

With it went the Easternmost of the four columns on the front of the building which faces Southward on Main street. This fell across the street car track in Main street, narrowly missing an approaching car, but did no damage and was soon cleared away. Almost miraculously nobody was injured by the collapse of the wall so far as can be ascertained. Had the accident occurred two hours earlier the result would have been disastrous to human life and limb.

The damage done the bank is serious. The two floors of the building are exposed for the space above mentioned. Fortunately the weather is fair. The bank is moving tonight into the building on the corner of Main and Eleventh streets, recently vacated by the National Bank of Virginia, and will open there for business in the morning. The money loss involved in the collapse is several thousand dollars.

CENSUS FIGURES GIVEN.

Population of Many Cities Known—Thirteenth Census.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Population statistics, as enumerated in the thirteenth census, were made public by the census bureau today for the following cities:

York, Pa., 44,750, an increase of 11,942 or 32.8 per cent., over 38,708 in 1900. Easton, Pa., 28,523, an increase of 3,285, or 13.0 per cent. over 25,238 in 1900. Newcastle, Pa., 36,280 an increase of 7,941 or 28 per cent. over 28339 in 1900. Oshkosh, Wis., 33,062, an increase of 4,778 or 16.9 per cent. over 28,284 in 1900. Terre Haute, Ind., 58,157, an increase of 21,484 or 58.6 per cent. over 36,673 in 1900. Somerville, Mass., 77,236, an increase of 15,593, or 25.3 per cent. over 61,643 in 1900. Newton, Mass., 39,808 an increase of 6,219 or 18.5 per cent. over 33,587 in 1900.

Boston, Sept. 27.—General William Oakes was nominated by the Republicans of the ninth district and former Alderman William Dudley Cotton defeated Police Commisioner Stephen O'Meara for the Republican nomination in the nineteenth.

TAKES THEM OUT OF POLITICS

Taft Will Issue Order Today Placing 8,000 Assistant Postmasters Under Civil Service Law—Cabinet Sessions.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—"Sen- result of the cabinet sessions which are in progress at the White House, it was announced today that President Taft would issue, probably tomorrow, an order, placing approximately 8,000 assistant postmasters in the United States under the protection of the civil service law and taking them entirely out of politics. It also was said that the President would recommend to Congress this Fall that all second and third class postmasters be placed under civil service rules.

By the order to be issued tomorrow some 7,622 assistant postmasters will be affected. If the recommendations as to second and third class postmasters are adopted by Congress, 7,198 additional postmasters will be placed under civil service regulations.

Postmaster General Hitchcock made the recommendations to President Taft both as to the assistant postmasters and to the officials of the second and third class. It is a part of the Postmaster General's scheme to put the postal establishment on a business basis and to make it self-supporting.

Estimates from the various departments for the coming fiscal years occupied the attention of the cabinet today. Mr. Taft's advisers also went over with him the speech he is to deliver at the banquet of the National League of Republican Clubs in New York on Saturday night. This is expected to be the President's final political utterance of the present campaign. It will tell, among other things the various legislative recommendations he will make to Congress at its coming session.

LAJOIE AHEAD OF TY COBB.

Famous Cleveland Player Will Likely Win the Automobile.

Cleveland, O. Sept. 27.—Larry Lajoie, the leading batter of the Cleveland baseball club, remained ahead of his rival, Ty Cobb, of the Detroit team, today in the race for the automobile which is to be presented to the player with the largest batting average in the major leagues at the end of the season.

In the first game of a double-header with Boston Lajoie made three hits in four times at bat. In the second game he failed to secure a hit in three times at bat. Cobb in the Detroit-New York game only secured one hit in four times at bat. The leaders averages stand now: Lajoie .374.7; Cobb .366.4.

EARTH SLIPPING PEOPLE IN TERROR

Strange Phenomena in Large District of State of Arizona.

QUAKES AND RUMBLINGS

Indians First Left and Then Whites When Houses Began to Crack Open—Country of Volcanic Origin.

Flagstaff, Ariz., Sept. 27.—A territory 50 miles square and extending from here to the Grand Canon of the Colorado river tonight stands practically depopulated because of earthquakes and rumblings, which, beginning Saturday, are steadily increasing in magnitud and violence.

Indians, of whom there were many in the region, fled when the quakes began, terrified by sinister imports which they imagined to be contained in the cracking of the ground. The whites remained until their houses fell about them.

J. B. Chaves, the first of the refugees to reach Flagstaff, reported that his house had cracked open. Others who arrived later, reported that volcanic stones weighing many tons had been torn from their beds and sent crashing down the mountain sides, and that the whole district was in a state of unrest. They refused flatly to go back.

The whole district is of volcanic origin. The present phenomena is attributed to a slipping of the earth's crust.

IRISH GATHER AT BUFFALO.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Irishmen from all parts of the United States and Canada, rallied to the standard of John B. Redmond and his colleagues in the Irish Nationalist party today. It was the opening of the fifth National convention of the United Irish League, but the sessions resolved themselves into a continuous eulogy of Redmond, Devlin, O'Connor and their colleagues and a ratification of the policies they represent. Money pledges came from all quarters, Montreal Irishmen stating in a telegram to President Michael J. Ryan that they would raise $10,000.

Mr. Redmond reviewed the things accomplished in the last five years which aroused great enthusiasm, particularly his reference to the success of the land purchase act by which thousands of peasants became the owners of their own farms.

"We are assembled here today to forward the great goal of National independence," said Mr. Redmond. "We did not come across the ocean to ask you for either your material or your moral help to get any minor reform. We have come to tell you that we believe now that all our energies should be toward an effort to settle in our lifetime the national self-government. We believe that at this moment we are in a position by which we can achieve that, and we have come without doubt or hesitation or misgiving to ask the Irishmen of this great continent to make one supreme effort so to strengthen our arms that we will be able to achieve home rule for Ireland in the immediate future."

Houston, Texas, Sept. 27.—In their hurry the two men who partially looted a Southern Pacific mail car near Avondale, La., last night, overlooked just a quarter of a million dollars. Packages of currency aggregating this amount aboard the car at the time of the robbery, were delivered intact to Texas banks today.

Dmodossola, Italy, Sept. 27.—George Chavez, aged 23, the Peruvian aviator who was injured in alighting after his flight over the Alps Friday, died at 2:25 o'clock this afternoon.

GREATER VIOLENCE IN BERLIN STRIKE

HUNDREDS INJURED IS RESULT

Women Sympathizers Help to Fight the Police—A Hundred Dangerously InjuredPScores of Arrests Were Made.

Berlin, Sept. 27.—Even greater violence than that of last night characterized the collisions between police and rioters in the Moabit precincts this evening. Many were injured on both sides. The district presents the aspect of a beseiged city.

Thousands of strikers and their sympathizers gathered in the streets as soon as darkness fell. A strong force of police numbering 100 mounted and 500 afoot armed with revolvers and swords, were stationed at various quarters under orders to exercise severe repressive measures. The rioters, about 9 o'clock in the evening began trougble, which increased as night advanced. Excited men and women dashed from place to place, smashing street lamps and the windows of stores. Several of the stores were sacked of valuable contents.

The police charged time and time, wounding many. Men and women stationed at open windows of houses, hurled bottles, bricks, coals and stones at the police, who replied with revolver shots.

The police entered several flats in wall-strasse, from one of which a maddened woman threw a lighted lamp with terrific force against an advancing squad, burning several of the men. Sharp conflicts occurred in Buessell-Strasse and Sewingli-Strasse. Many shots were fired from the crowd. But police charged with drawn swords, leaving many injured on the ground.

Scores of arrests were made. Saloons were ordered closed at 11 o'clock and cordons of police prevented the approach of thousands arriving from other quarters. This measure was effective in bringing about comparative calm, but groups of sullen strikers were prowling in the vicinity up to midnight.

The total number of casualties recorded is 100 strikers injured, thirteen of them dangerous, and two policemen. In addition there was hundreds who received minor injuries.

POLE BUNCOED.

Saloon Keeper Swindled Out of $900 in Clever Manner.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 27.—Dominick Zavicki, a Polish saloon keeper, from Gilbertown, Schuylkill county, was buncoed out of $900 by an old scheme worked in a new and clever way here today.

Zavocki had $900, which was made up principally of old and dirty $20 bills. At the suggestion of an acquaintance that he have the money changed into new $1 bills, Zavocki and the man went to a trust company on Broad street. At the door they were met by a stranger who asked Zavocki what he could do for him.

The saloon keeper said that he wished 900 $1 bills.

"Certainly" said the stranger. "Just sit down and I will bring them to you."

A few moments later, according to the story told to the chief of detectives tonight, the man returned with three neatly wrapped packages covered with red seals.

Zavocki put the packages in a grip and never suspected that he did not have $900, until running out of change, he opened one of the packages to get money with which to pay for his supper.

ELECTION FRAUD PROBE.

Asked Maynard and Young to File Their Campaign Expenses.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 27.—Pleading lack of authority, the sub-committee of the State Democratic Committee, which is investigating the recent Congressional primary election in the second district, today decided that it could not act under the petition filed by the citizen's committee.

The latter asked that the committee require both William A. Young and Harry L. Maynard to file their campaign expense accounts for use in this investigation. The two candidates claim that the present contest is a part of the primary and that they cannot tell what their expenses are until the investigation has been completed.

BEAUFORT TO BOSTON CANAL.

Vessels to Escape Treacherous Shoals On North Carolina Coast.—

Beaufort, N. C., Sept. 27.—Sailors will escape the dreaded grave yards at Cape Lookont and Cape Hatteras, where so many vessels and lives have been lost, by utilizing the inland canal rapidly nearing completion which will link Beaufort, N. C., with Boston. The dredges working from each end of the canal are now less than three quarters of a mile apart.

The canal will be open for traffic next December and will afford great relief from the present high freight rates from Northern ports.

TAKE UP SOCIAL REFORM.

Says "Poverty Would be Cut in Half" By Abolishing Saloon.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Having specifically discussed charity from practically its every angle, the first National Conference of Catholic Charities tonight considered the broad general question of social reform. The problems in this connection which face both the clergy and the laity were outlined by experienced charity workers. Monsignor William J. White, diocesian director of charities of Broolyn, N. Y, the very Rev. Joseph McSorley, C. S. P. of New York, and Thomas Woodlock, of New York, were the principal speakers.

The day meeting of the conference was devoted to the consideration of the dependent family and out of this grew a general discussion of the causes of poverty and of the most practical and efficacious means of raising the poor to a plane of independence. The speakers strongly urged on Catholics to co-operate with all charitable organizations.

Advocates of total abstinence were heard today. The Rev. Peter J. Callaghan, C. S. P., National president of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, declared that most of the inmates of jails and penitentaries were put there by the saloon.

"If the Catholic church would do its full duty on the temperance question," he said, "poverty would be cut in half."

The conference tonight voted to hold its next meeting in this city in September, 1912, and elected the following officers for a two year term:

Honorary president, Cardinal Gibbons; active president, Rev. Mgr. T. J. Shahan, Washington; treasurer, William H. Delacey, Washington; secretary, Rev. Dr. W. J. Kerbey, Washington; vice presidents, Charles A. Corcey, Boston; Mrs. Thomas H. Kelley, New York; John C. Hagen, Richmond, Va.; James F. Kennedy, Chicago; C. C. Desmond, Los Angeles; John Graham, New Orleans.

TRIAL OF HASKELL UNDERWAY.

Oklahoma Governor Answers Fraud Charges in Musokee.

McAlester, Okla., Sept. 27.—Argument by attorneys occupied today's proceedings in the trial of Governor Charles N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, and others in the Muskogee town lot cases before Federal Judge John A. Marshall.

Reviewing the charges against Haskell as returned by a Federal grand jury, R. Rush, special assistant to the attorney general, said the government was prepared to show that the defendants in procuring title to the lots had fraudulently used the names of persons living in many Eastern state.

Some of the people whose names had been used by Governor Haskell and his associates had refused to turn their property over after Haskell had procured the deeds for them, Mr. Rush said, these persons would be called as witnesses.

He said the prosecution was prepared to show that Gov. Haskell "knowingly and wilfully entered into conspiracy to defraud the government and Creek Indians and to violate the regulations of the Department of the Interior." Mr. Rush said it would be shown that by false registration, Gov. Haskell and others illegally secured about 600 lots in Muskogee at one half the appraised value thus defrauding the Indians out of the one half of the money they should have received.

S. A. C. Crua, counsel for Governor Haskell, contended that the manner in which the defendants obtained the property was known to the Department of the Interior and the department had approved of it.

ATLANTA DAY.

Geirgians in Great Numbers at Appalachian Exposition.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 27.—Atlanta day, floral parade day, Georgia day, negro day and opening of the pigeon and pet stock show are features of the Appalachian Exposition today. Mayor R. F. Maddox and 500 citizens of Atlanta, arrived this morning at 7 o'clock on a special train over the Louisville & Nashville Railroad. They were met at the station by a reception committee and marched through the business district headed by two bands and the Atlanta Red Men's drum corps. The visitors witnessed the automobile flower parade at noon and attended a reception at the exposition grounds tendered by President W. J. Oliver at 10:30. Special entertainment features are being presented for them this afternoon. Negro day attracted several thousand negroes from all parts of the South. A negro parade through the city was followed by an address at the exposition grounds by Rev. C. T. Walker, of Augusta, Ga., a leading negro preacher.

The pigeon and pet stock show opened this morning to continue for one week. This is the first pigeon show ever presented in the South. More than 1,500 birds are entered.

This morning a meeting of officials of the Tennessee Federation of Women's Clubs was held and followed by a luncheon.

POLICEMAN FOR MURDER.

Former Bristol Officer Placed on Trial Yesterday.

Bristol, Tenn., Sept. 27.—The trial of Grat M. Walk, a former Bristol policeman, charged with having murdered Houston Childress, a fellow policeman here, whom he shot down seven years ago, was started at Blountville, Tenn., today. It required several hours to complete the jury. The trial will probably last three days.

After the killing Walk escaped and was captured three months ago at Spokane, Wash., where he was serving as a detective.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 27.—August Wilena and Heinrich Star were drowned and five other men had a narrow escape from death today when a small boat in which they were rowing to a steamer in the harbor capsized. All of the men had spent the night in the city and attempted to row back to the vessel in a boat which had a capacity of carrying three persons.

WISCONSIN PROGRESSIVES.

Day of Speech Making at Platform Convention at Madison.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 27.—The Republican State platform convention spent today in listening to Insurgent Congressmen make speeches. Congressman Cooper, Lenroot and Esch rehearsed phases of the insurgent fight against the rules in the House of Representatives at Washington and extolled Senator LaFollette as the father of the progressive ideas often erroneously, they declared, called the Roosevelt policies.

"They called us Insurgents—I can't quite give the nasty accent—and then they called us Democrats," said Congressman Lenroot. "Well, there are worse things than being a Democrat.

"The old line Senators left their chairs with smiles of derision when Senator LaFollette began to speak. He turned to them and said with a propheay, which has come true: 'Those chair which you leave vacant temporarily will be made permanently so by the people.' Where are former Senators from North and South Dakota; from Kansas and from Iowa? Their seats are occupied by Cummins, by Borah by Bristow, by Progressive Republicans."

"Yes; and Hale is sick and Aldrich not feeling well," added Congressman Cooper.

After submitting one plank pledging Republican legislators to return Senator LaFollette to the upper house at Washington the resolution committee of the Republican State convention retired for a night of deliberation, stating that there could be no

McFARLAND AND HYLAND.

Chicago Lightweight Outpointed Opponent in Slashing Bout.

New York, Sept. 27.—Packey McFarland, the Chicago lightweight outpointed and outbattled "Fighting Dick" Hyland in a slashing ten round bout tonight before the Fairmont Athletic Club. Popular decision awarded him the victory. No decision was rendered however.

McFarland started mixing from the start, using a short snappy jab to the face and that confused Hyland. The latter however, unmindful of punishment, rushed continuously, landing swings to the body, but the distance was too short for this style of fighting to be effective.

McFarland gave a fine exhibition of blocking, using his fore-arms effectively and was forced to do little ducking. Gradually, he led Hyland into making wild lunges, while his own blows were well timed and directed. In clinches McFarland showed to advantage, working a right upper-cut to the face that drew blood.

Both men finished strong, the final round being fast and even. McFarland's superior work throughout, however, was apparent to the experts.

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE.

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was Cleansed by a Simple Wash.

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard, of Altamahaw, N. C. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that eczema, and that was three years ago."

D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, blackheads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wash for the skin made that can compared with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. A 25 cent bottle will give you positive proof of the wonderful effectiveness of this great remedy.

CURES PIMPLES EASY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Co. have done the biggest business it ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, ache, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound on disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling To convince every one of its merits, they will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

Freckle-Face

If the Summer Brought Out Unsightly Spots. You Can Remove Them Easily.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength, from J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion.

Now that the summer has brought its crop of freckles to most women, there is an unusual demand for Othine and in September the druggists sometimes find it difficult to get sufficient to supply all calls. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as it is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

BLEWETT FALLS.

Southern Power Company May Bid Property In—Dr. Wylie.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 27.—Considerable interest is felt in this section concerning the outcome of the sale of the Rockingham Power Co.'s properties at Blewitt Falls. The property is located on Pee Dee river 15 miles from Wadesboro and has been partially developed. Rockingham Power Co., several years ago undertook the work of establishing a hydro-electric plant at Blewitt Falls. It was proposed to develop 30,000 horse power to be distributed through this section. Work progressed very well for a while until the panic of 1907, when financial difficulties and disagreement between certain of the stockholders caused a receivership. Later the property was sold at receiver's sale and bought in by a committee representing the bondholders. During the past few months some work has been done, however, just about enough to keep from losing that which had been done before. Several days ago Dr. W. Gil Wylie, of New York City, president of the Southern Power Company visited the location and inspected the property. It is understood that the Southern Power Company contemplates bidding in the plant at the sale. The upset price on the property is one million dollars.

The work which has been done has cost more than two millions of dollars and it is estimated that it will take about half of that amount to complete the plant. The Wilmington firm of Hugh MacRae & Co., hold bonds to the amount of $310,000 and are the largest subscribers to the bonds of the company.

The interest in this section in the enterprise is strong. The completion of the plant means cheap power in abundance throughout Anson, Richmond and the surrounding counties and the establishment of more industries. Cotton mill men and others interested in manufacturing industries have watched anxiously for the completion of the plant and the sale of the power.

Dr. Wylie expressed himself as being favorably impressed with the work and if it were left to him would undoubtedly bid in the property. Just what the Southern Power Company will do is not known. It is hoped that the result of the visit of Dr. Wylie to the plant will be its purchase and completion by the Southern Power Company in the near future.

REBUILDING TELEPHONES.

System at Wadesboro Being Thoroughly Overhauled Now.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 27.—The Wadesboro Telephone Co., is rebuilding the entire plant. New poles and new lines with a modern, up-to-date switchboard mean a considerable expenditure. Mr. A. L. Shaw, of the engineering department of the Sumter Telephone Manufacturing Co., is here this week taking up matters relative to the placing of the equipment. The construction work which is being done in the home plant is equal to that found in many larger towns and the work is being done by men who have had years of experience. The local company is determined that its service shall keep pace with Wadeboro's growth in other lines and show their confidence in the future of the town by the continual investments of their earnings for the improvement of their plant.

DEATH FROM PELLAGRA.

Mrs. W. A. Gray Passes Away at Wadesboro—The Funeral.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 27.—Mrs. W. A. Gray died yesterday after an illness of about two months from pellagra. She is survived by her husband and two children, one a son and the other a daughter. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. H. West, at the Gray burying ground at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Gray was a daughter of Mr. Sam Luther, of Lilesville township, and was about 30 years of age. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and a kind-hearted woman. Those who knew her loved her for her womanly virtues and sweet disposition. She was devoted to her home and the husband and children have the tenderest sympathy of many friends.

WEST POINT INQUIRY.

"Silencing" of Captain by Cadet Corps Being Inquired Into.

West Point, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The testimony of several first-class men at the Military Academy was taken today by the board of inquiry headed by Col. Bethel, which is investigating the recent "silencing" of Capt. Rufus E. Longan by the cadet corps. Indications are that several days will be required to complete the inquiry.

Gen. Thomas H. Barry, superintendent of the Academy, returned today from Washington, but declined to discuss the incident. The order confining cadets to the barracks during recreating hours continues in effect. One result of this has been to put an end to football practice and the coming game with the University of Vermont may be cancelled.

SEARCHING ROBBERS.

Big Rewards for Masked Men Who Robbed Mail Car.

New Orleans, Sept. 27.—The two masked men who last night robbed the mail car of the Southern Pacific Texas express at Avondale, 12 miles west of New Orleans, had not been captured at a late hour tonight. Liberal reward for the arrest of the robbers has been offered by Federal and State officials. Postoffice authorities here say that they cannot as yet estimate the loss. More than 40 men, sworn as special officers, are tonight searching for the robbers.

Fredericksburg, Va., Sept. 27.—The Republican convention for the first Congressional district of Virginia met today in the court house in Fredericksburg. Charles A. McKinney, of Cape Charles, was made both temporary and permanent chairman, with S. W. Travers, of Caroline secretary. George N. Wise, of Newport News, was unanimously nominated for Congress to oppose William A. Jones.

SULTAN AND PRINCE VISIT.

Tsai Hsun Meets Taft While Sulu Monarch Stays With Col. Scott.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The Sultan of Sulu played second fiddle to Prince Tsai Hsun, of China, among the capital's distinguished guests today. But while the later was being received by the President and members of the cabinet, the Sultan was content to enjoy himself under the guidance of Col. Hugh Scott U. S. A., and to bide his time until he meets President Taft tomorrow.

The Sultan visited the Washington monument and marveled at its height, took a street car ride, it being his special desire to ride on a "street train" and visited many public buildings, including the capitol and Congressional library. The Sultan greatly enjoyed the street car ride and said he preferred the street cars to automobiles.

INCENDIARISM CHARGED.

Girl Who Has Relatives in Charlotte Arrested in Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 27.—Bessie Walden was today held without bail for the action of a grand jury on the charge of saturating her apartments at 192 Holt street, this city, with oil and setting them on fire.

The fire occurred Monday morning and after an investigation, Fire Chief McLaughlin reported the matter to the police. Inmates in the house escaped in their night clothes.

The woman is alleged to be heavily in debt and to have carried considerable insurance on her furniture. She came to Norfolk from Atlanta and is said to be prominently connected in that town. She also has relatives in Charlotte N. C., and has wired them for funds.

OLDFIELD MAKES RECORDS.

Four New Records on Track at Milwaukee Yesterday.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 27.—Barney Oldfield set four new world's records on the State fair track today.

In the 25-mile race against time Oldfield, in a Knox, traveled the distance in 22:47, beating the record which was held by Ralph DePalma. He covered the first 20 miles in new time, setting a mark of 18:15 1-5. DePalma held the former record of 18:30, made at Grand Rapids. The 15 miles were made in 13:41 2-5.

Oldfield also set a new record for the one hour event, traveling 60 1-2 miles during the hour, beating the old record by one and one-half hiles.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 27.—W. P. Murray, president of the Cleveland Athletic Club, and well known as a horseman, received a telegram tonight from Donerail, Ky., to the effect that his famous brood mare Bifty Duck, by Bezant, was killed by lightning while grazing. The mare made a record of 2:25 1-2 as a 2-year-old. She was the mother of Ruben S., 2:10 1-4; Marion D., 2:26 1-4; Murray McKerron, 2:29 1-4; and Murray Mac, 2:30.

THE EDUCATOR SCHOLARSHIP.

Famous Shoe Manufacturer Offers Valuable Prize to Boy or Girl.

The manufacturers of the famous "Educator Shoe" for boys and young women announce a most interesting and unique contest that has just been inaugurated under which the boy or girl who by a given date, complying with the very simple conditions, may be awarded a prize of $150 to be applied to his or her education at their favorite institution. The contest is for the State of North Carolina and will close October 15th, being open to the young people between the ages of 10 and 19 years. In Wilmington the agents for this celebrated make of footwear are Messrs Peterson & Ruif and they now have on display at their store on North Front street a very elegant line of the shoes and full particulars about the contest. They would be pleased to give literature and all information upon application to their store.

Fell Into a Cistern.

Mr. Marcus W. Jacobi, senior member of the firm of the N. Jacobi Hardware Co., and a member of the Water and Sewerage Commission, had a most unpleasant experience yesterday afternoon while superintending some work about a large cistern at his home, No. 302 North Third street. While the particulars could not be learned last night, it is stated that the cistern had been opened and that a board laid across the mouth of the excavation gave way under the weight of Mr. Jacobi and he was precipitated below into a depth of nearly ten feet of water. However, Mr. Jacobi is a good swimmer and managed to keep afloat until he was assisted from his very perilous position. Friends will hope that Mr. Jacobi will suffer no very serious effects from his experience and really dangerous accident.

Attachment Proceedings.

Funds in the hands of the Clerk of Superior Court belonging to Mr. Herbert Hocutt, formerly superintendent of the county roads were attached yesterday by the J. W. Fleet Co., who instituted attachment proceedings in Justice Harriss' court. The papers were served by Constable Savage. Mr. Hocutt has a $100 cash bond in the hands of the Clerk of the Superior Court and it was his money that was attached. The case is returnable before Justice Harriss October 27th.

CHICAGO'S FIRST VIEW.

Brookins Makes Spectacular Flight Over Tallest Skyscrapers.

Chicago, Sept . 27.—An aeroplane flew for 30 minutes today above the tallest scrapers, giving Chicago its first view of a flying machine in action.

Walter Brookins, who is to endeavor on Thursday to beat the American long distance, sustained flight record by flying to Springfield, Ill., from Chicago for a prize of $10,000 offered by the Chicago Record-Herald, drove a Wright aeroplane in today's exhibition. He made two flights today.

Tomorrow he will repeat today's propram preparatory to Thursday's sail across country.

Adverse winds made Brookin's flight today perilous and he was compelled to go up three thousand feet to get away from the gusts eddying far above the city's tall buildings. The starting and landing place today was in Grant Park on the shore of Lake Michigan.

MAY DROP CAPT. HAINES.

Slayer of Annis Undesireble in Army —President Taft May Take Hand.

Washington, Sept. 27.—It is probable that the President will recommend to the next session of Congress the enactment of some legislation that will unequivocally permit dropping of Captain Peter C. Haines, Jr., from the army. Captain Haines is now confined in the penitentiary under a fit of jealousy and the law governing such a case is so complicated that an amendment is deemed necessary to permit dropping army officers convicted on felony, from the army roll.

Just Crazy About It.

LORIMER BROBE UNDERWAY

Legislator White Principal Witness—Bribery Charges Taken-Up.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Direct and cross examination of State Representative Charles A. White the principal witness in suport of the charges that the election of Senator William Lorimer were procured by corrupt methods, was completed today before the Senatorial investigation committee.

Early in the session Chairman Burrows, of the committee, gave a ruling, barring heresay evidence form the proceedings. The ruling was based specifically on the right of Representative White to relate conversations which he declared he had had with Representative Josehph S. Clark, of Vandalia about Clark's admitting that that he was bribed to vote for Senator Lorimer.

Later, the same ruling barred the manuscript story of White's alleged experiences in the 46th general assembly detailing his assertions of the bribery of himself and other legislators in the Lorimer election.

Attorney Austrian today finished White's direct testimony with leave to recall. Attorney Haney also completed cross-examination of White. The cross-examination dealt primarily with letters and messages and conversations of White. A number of letters to Minority Leader Lee O'Neil Browne from White and also missives from the witness to Senator Lorimer were read into the record. They were the same as heretofore published.

White absolutely denied statements to witness in the trial of Minority Leader Browne, relative to White's having expressed a determination to force Senator Lorimer and his friends to contribute much money to him on a threat of declaring falsely that he was bribed to vote for the Senator.

Senator James B. Frazier, Democrat of Tennessee, arrived late in the day to sit with his colleagues tomorrow. It is expected that State Representative H. J. C. Beckemeyer, who also has declared that he was bribed in the Senatorial election will be a witness tomorrow. Beckemeyer is to be followed by State Senator D. W. Holtzlaw who is credited with having confessed to the Sangamon county grand jury that he received $2,500 for voting for Senator Lorimer. Holtzlaw has not yet testified in any trial.

TWO CONGRESSMAN LOSE.

Democratic Primaries Held in Massachusetts—Features Given.

Boston, Sept. 27.—The notable features of the Democratic primaries held throughout the State today were the defeat of two Congressmen for renomination, John A. Keliher, in the ninth district, and Joseph F. O'Connell in the tenth, and also the fact that a large majority of the delegates to the State convention will go to Faneul Hall on October 6th without pledges for any one of the three candidates for the gubernatorial nomination, Charles S. Hamlin, James H. Vahey and Congressman Eugene ross.

Republican primaries were also held jointly with the Democrats in eleven cities, including Boston, Lowell and Lawrence, but it was only in Lowell that there was any noticeable opposition to the candidacy of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge for re-election. In Lowell, the candidates against Senator Lodge, three of the candidates nominated by the Republicans for the two branches of the Legislature are outspoken for Ames.

The Democratic Congressional winners of the primaries are William F. Murray in the ninth, James F. Curley in the tenth, and Andrew J. Peters in the eleventh.

The Republican nominee in those districts are William H. Oakes in the ninth; J. Mitchell Galvin in the tenth and William D. Cotton in the eleventh.

All of these nominations were made directly in the joint primaries. The three districts have been strongly Democratic for ten years.

A fight for the Republican nomination in the fourth district was also begun today in the city of Waltham and will be continued tomorrow in the remainder of the 43 cities and towns. Early returns from Waltham indicated that Henry L. Pierce of Leominster had carried three of the seven wards against William H. Wilder, of Gardner, while the other results were not definite.

A STATUTS OF JACKSON.

Unveiled at Charleston, W. Va., by Daughters of the Confederacy.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 27.—A bronze statue of General Stonewall Jackson was unveiled today on the State capitol grounds by the local Daughters of the Confederacy. General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky., commander of the Department of Tennessee, U. C. V., was the chief speaker.

The statue represents General Jackson with one hand on his sword and the other grasping his field glasses. It is the first statue to be erected in the West Virginia capital and is about 2 feet high.

BLOODY DAY IN PITTSBURG.

Several Tragedies Including Suicides and Mysterious Deaths.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 27.—This rather exceptional records of day's tragedies was compiled by the police today.

Mrs. Sarah Welsh, aged 32, was found fatally burned in her apartments at 19 Penn street, North Side. The door of the flat was battered and scarred, the furniture in her place nearly all removed and there was evidence of things having been hurled about the room. She died after saying that her burns were received in the explosion of a gas range, but the range was found intact. The police scented mystery in the case and are investigating.

George Stewart, aged 30, was found dead on the steps of the Herron Hill Methodist Episcopal church He had taken carbolic acid. Relatives unknown.

George E. Ogden fell from the window of a Carson street hotel and was instantly killed.

W. S. Hertzberger, aged 21, was killed by electricity while repairing lights at the Pressed Steel Car Company's plant in McKees' Rocks.

John Ross, aged 19, of Homestead, fatally shot himself through the lungs and will die. The police declare it suicide.

Myrtle King, aged 21, attempted suicide by drinking poison at a second avenue rooming house. She is expected to recover.

BATTLESHIP ACCIDENT.

Details About Explosion on Georgia Are Made Known.

Washington, Sept. 27.—When the port gun in the forward turret of the battleship Georgia exploded during battle practice last Thursday the gun crew kept on firing the starboard gun as though nothing had occurred. Minute details of the accident on this ship, which docked at Norfolk today, are just reaching Washington and indicate that it was even more remarkable that no one was killed and injured than was at first supposed.

The muzzle of the big 12-inch rifle blew off almost to the turret opening and fragments are said to have dropped on the decks of battleships more than 1,000 yards away.

That no one was hit by one of these fragments probably was due to the fact that Rear Admiral Schroeder insisted upon strict enforcement of the rule that every man should be at his battle station while firing was in progress. Thus almost all were under cover when the explosion occurred.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKINGS.

List of Appointments Announced From State Headquarters.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 27.—The State Committee at Democratic headquarters is now actively in the midst of the campaign and is sending strong speakers to every part of the State besides doing much other good work in the cause. Some of the recent appointments of speakers are as follows:

Wilson, October 5th, Governor W. W. Kitchin.

Kenansville, October 3rd, Hon. F. M. Simmons.

Comfort, October 6th, Hon. F. M. Simmons.

ROANOKE MAN SUICIDE.

City Councilman Harry F. Jordan Drank Carbolic Acid.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 27—City Councilman Harry F. Jordan committed suicide in his home here this evening by drinking an ounce of carbolic acid. His body was found later by his sister-in-law. Domestic troubles are said to be the cause of the self destruction.

Boston, Sept. 27.—In the Democratic Congressional primaries today Congressman John A. Keliher was defeated in the ninth district by William F. Murray, a member of the executive council while in the eleventh district Congressman Andrew J. Peters was re-nominated.

ROSY AS YOUNG GIRL

J. W. Church, the Notary Public, of Summit, N. C. Tells How Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Helped His Wife.

Summit, N. C.—"My wife had been ailing for nearly 12 years," writes Mr. Church, "and at times was unable to leave the house. She suffered agony with her side and back. We tried our family physician for many years, without relief. After his treatments all failed, she began to take Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now she is red and rosy as a school girl.

Mrs. Church recommends Cardui to all suffering women."

Cardui is more successful than other remedies, because it is "different." It is in a class by itself.

In over half a century more than a million women have been helped to rosy health and happiness, by using this well known and scientific woman's remedy.

Cardui acts specifically, on the weakened womanly organs. It helps to refresh the worn-out nerves and is the ideal remedy for young and old.

As a tonic, for women, it has brought remarkable results.

As a remedy for women's ills, its friends say it has no equal.

Try Cardui.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards or thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms No. 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be invariably rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Wednesday, September 28, 1910.

The mere idea of a mere Vice President attempting to buck against an ex-President! Prestige counts for more than political trickery, but the Hon. James S. Sherman had to butt into that fact good and hard before he recognized it.

Col. Roosevelt's platform, submitted to the State Republican convention at Saratoga yesterday, contains strong expressions against graft, and included a vigorous plank favoring labor. Of course! They are vote catchers and surely the Colonel knows how to throw out the hook with the proper bait.

It must not be overlooked that most of the row in the Republican party is between the politicians and not between the voters. Progressivism in New York is a synonymous term with Rooseveltism. Roosevelt has no quarrel with standpatism. The querrel is about who shall be the boss.

The silence which Roosevelt devotes to the tariff is in striking contrast with the hullabaloo he creates over conservation and grandmammy talk. He entirely overlooks the fact that the people want to be conserved themselves. We fancy the voters will not permit the Colonel to confuse the issues.

The Savannah Morning News informs us that the Attorney General of Georgia "has ruled that the dog tax is valid and is in the same class with all other taxes." That attorney general doubtless has no further aspirations for continuande in office, because he certainly couldn't expecte to get the "yallow" dog man's vote.

William Barnes, Jr., of Albany, leader of the New York "old guard," has been doing a lot of frothing at the mouth of late. Now that Roosevelt whipped him out at the State convention yesterday he can either bite himself or wipe off the froth and follow the progressive procession. We fancy that William will be a grouchy stepper in the ranks.

With his repudiation yesterday by the New York State Republican convention at Saratoga, supplementing his other acquired repudiations, it is presumed that the "Rspectable Republican party" of North Carolina will feel like cancelling its invitation to Vice President Sherman to come to North Carolina with the idea that he can influence the highly respectable Democrats of the Good Old North State.

The Wisconsin Legislature is to consider a bill that will enable a man's wife to go to the polls and cast his vote if her husband is sick and cant's go out to vote. Of course, such a law would increase the Democratic vote, for women will vote to save expenses at home and certainly will not vote to tax themselves for the benefit of somebody responsible for high priced shoes, clothing and victuals. It wouldn't take a woman one second to be a Democrat.

That we can reverse the ruinous custom of buying forage from the West, and instead produce our own forage crops and keep the money at home, is indicated in an advertisement appearing in the Star's "business locals" column yesterday morning. The Holland Nurseries, at Castle Haynes, offered for sale "oats and vetch hay." This is something new under the sun. The lands in eastern North Carolina are incomparable for the production of forage crops and not one dollar should be sent from this country to the West for supplies of that kind. When he keep our money at home, instead of sending it away for something we can raise at home, the country will have an element of prosperity long neglected.

TELEPHONES FOR YOUR FARMS.

The Star is gratified to announce that the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, through its "Farm Line Department," is entering upon a vigorous campaign at Wilmington with a view to the establishment of farmers' telephone lines in New Hanover, Brunswick, Columbus, Bladen, Pender and other counties around Wilmington. The farmers in these counties should rejoice in a movement so well calculated to advance their interests and which will give them the benefit of a progress that means much for the rural population in touch with Wilmington.

There are three things in this progressive age which more than any others tend to make farm life more attractive and contribute to the happiness and content of the rural population. These are good roads, rural free mail delivery and telephones, which, together with schools, churches and other advantages of this progressive age, make country life worth living. With good roads facilitating neighborhood traffic and travel, free mail delivery furnishing communities with their newspapers fresh with the intelligence of the world, and telephones to put them in touch with eachother and with the outside world, the farmer begins to enjoy the blessings of this modern age and keep abreast with the progress of the times. The farming community which is without good roads, free rural mail delivery and telephones is behind the times, and it behooves all such communities to wake up and catch up with the procession.

Mr. H. McA. Rose, manager of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, at Wilmington, states that this company has determined upon a vigorous campaign around Wilmington to give the farmers the benefit of telephone service. The work which is being undertaken here is the same that has been underway in several Southern States, especially in the two Virginias the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama and Florida, in which States there are now 17,000 rural telephones. The campaign for introducing telephones to country life is in its in fancy and sooner or later there will scarcely be a farm or community that will not be in touch with one neighborhood to the other throughout North Carolina. We are sure the people in New Hanover, Brunswick, Columbus, Bladen and Pender will rejoice that the opportunity is to be offered to them, through the encouragement of the Bell Company, to have telephone service from their farms with Wilmington and other stations in the various counties.

This means an immense advantage to the farmers of the counties named, for not only will the farmers have the advantage of the general utilities of the telephone but the Bell Company, in view of the fact that this is a great trucking region, has perfected arrangement with Weather Bureau Service of the United States Government at Washington, D. C., to give the farmers daily weather reports wherever there is rural telephones. This service will be absolutely free and will be exceedingly useful for our truckers and farmers. At 11 o'clock every morning the Bell Company will receive from Washington by telgraph the weather forecast for 24 hours. Immediately afterwards the forecast will be telephoned throughout the trucking regions. Along the farmers' tele phone lines a general signal will be used for calling all farmers to their 'phones to receive the weather forcast. The signal to be rung will call every farmer on a line so they can take down their receivers and all hear the weather mesage at once as it is read to them by the chief operator in Wilmington. Thus the truckers will know early in the day of the approach of a cold wave so they can prepare to put their strawberries and other crops under cover.

Our counrty friends should lose no opportunity to co-operate with the Bell Company in its efforts to introduce telephone service in their homes. It is hardly necessary to speak of the advantages of the telephone. It will be a good investment and the rates will be so low that every farmer can afford to install a 'phone. Country residents who have 'phones will be in closer touch with each other and it will cement the community closer together in a social and business way. It will save many a ride or long walk from one neighbor's to another's on some trival or important business matter and in that respect it will be a great money-saver in the saving of time that can otherwise be devoted to farm work. The family physician can be called over the telephone in less time than it takes to hitch a horese. In the meantime, the doctor can give directions over the 'phone till he arrives, thus relieving much distress and saving many lives in some instances. If anything happens in a neighborhood, neighbors can be called at once and it is well known that the rural telephone has been of notable service not only in case of sickness but in the event of fires, horse stealing and other depredations. There is also a social side to the rural telephone, which can be used in extending ivitations to entertainments, church fairs, and for social chats during the day. It is useless to enlarge upon the further usefulness of the telephone because to go into details would fill this page.

At present there are connected with the Wilmington telephone exchange only 45 rural 'phones in the counties of New Hanover, Brunswick and Pender. There ought to be 500 at least and we are sure the Bell Company's efforts will cause a rapid development in the interest of a service so indispensible. At present the Wilmington exchange has a telephone line to Carolina Beach, upon which there is rural service. There is also a line from Wilmington to Southport, and farm service is now being installed along that line. Yesterday afternoon the line of the Winnabow Telephone Company was connected up with the Wilmington exchange. Dr. E. G. Goodman is president of that company and the eBll Company has granted his company the privilege of connecting with the Southport line into Wilmington. The line to Winnabow now has seven 'phones installed in the Winnabow neighborhood and it is expected to add twenty within a few months. It is understood that the Southport line is to be converted as rapidly as possible into a farmers' line and for that purpose the line is now being reconstructed by a large force of men. It will be a standard toll line with metallic circuit and it is proposed to have farmers lines connected with it at various points. There is also another farmers' line in operation to Scott's Hill. On this line there are now nine subscribers and no doubt other farmers will soon install 'phones.

Where as many as six farmers will club together and construct a farmers' line from their residences or places of business to the city limits or to any of the Bell Company's regular lines, and install their own telephones, the Bell Company will give them connection over it's line, with the privilege of unlimited use, for the low price of $8 a year per station. Each subsequent station added to the line will have the advantage of the same rates. For connection with the Southport line there will be a charge of only $6 a 'phone per annum. These prices ought to cause the construction of farmers' lines all over the country.

In some of the counties there are local telephone lines, such as those of Lake Waccamaw, Hallsville and other places. With all such lines the Bell Company, free of charge, will connect these lines with its toll lines so that they may secure long distance service by only paying for long distance messages such as may be sent. This makes of the local a feeder for toll lines, and it will be quite an advantage to the service of the local lines, as the Bell Company will install the switches and make it possible for a farmer to stand at his 'phone and call up Wilmington, New York or neighboring towns which have telephone service. The cirucits at Lake Waccamax, Hallsboro, Wananish and Burgaw can now be switched onto the toll line and have all the communication they want by simply paying for the mileage over the toll line between the two localities having local service. There is now a farmers' line from Burgaw to Atkinson and those two places are in communication with Wilmington every day. However, on the A. & Y. Railroad between Wilmington and Atkinson there is no telephone service, but there should be farmers' lines at Curie and Montague, and the Bell Company will make every effort to install these lines as well as in numerous other localities in the several counties.

The Bell Company will soon have men in Wilmington from its "Farmers' Line Department" to go into the various counties and work up interest in the rural service. The canvassers will get in touch personally with the farmers, and besides that the company will mail letters and return postal cards to the farmers so that all who become interested can return the cards to the company, and get its assistance in the organization of farmers' lines. Meetings of farmers called to take up the matter of telephone service will be attended by the farmers' line canvassers who will address them, give them details, all possible information, let them know the plans and cost of installing lines, and will instruct them how to proceed to effect an organization.

The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and the Wilmington Merchants' Association should get behind the Bell Company in this important movement. It means much for Wilmington and as rural service is being established in all live Southern localities this section of North Carolina cannot afford to be behind any of them. Mecklenburg county now has approximately 500 rural 'phones, compared with 125 twelve months ago. In another twelve months it is confidently expected that that county will have 1,000 'phones. In Union county there are today 1,500 farmers' 'phones connecting with Monroe where there are only 450 telephones in use. This shows that the Union farmers apperciate telephone service, and, if they recognize its advantages in a strictly farming country, our truck growers should recognize that telephone service would be of immensely more advantage to them.

Let this good work go on with the hearty endorsement of Wilmington's commercial organizations and citizens. Farmers desiring service should not wait to be called on by the canvassers but can get down to business quicker by addressing a postal card or letter to Mr. H. McA. Rose, Manager Southern Bell Telephone Company Wilmington, N. C.

Some old scrawny-necked sister with a tongue like a spreading adder can stir up as much trouble in society as Col. Roosevelt can in politics.

Vice President Sherman didn't run from Roosevelt at Saratoga yesterday. After all, there is something distinguishing about Sherman—his nerve!

The South Carolinians rejected the advice of their newspapers on politics. The editors may stand a better showing by sticking to "farming on paper."

Prolonged periods of office-holding by one man is terribly obnoxious to a politician who has to wait longingly and anxiously for a chance at the job.

CURRENT COMMENT.

This other Sherman seems not to be marching to the salt sea, but in the direction of Salt river.—Savannah News.

Col. Roosevelt told England that she ought to get out of Egypt and India if she didn't rule rightly. The Egyptian National Congress has solemnly resolved that England should get out of that country, anyhow.—Savannah News.

Reports from over the Third District show that Dr. Faison, the Democratic candidate for Congress, will carry the district by a greater majority than Mr. Thomas did two years ago. The people seem to sicken at the name of Butler.—Newbern Sun.

We think the Robeson Advance is mistaken in its statement that the friends of Mr. Clark are very sore over the result of the Congressional primary which resulted in an overwhelming victory for Mr. Godwin. And the Advance will no doubt realize that it was mistaken when the returns are in after the November election.—Lumberton Robesonian.

We do not believe there are many voters in this Congressional district who can be influenced to vote for George Mary Ann's Brother Butler through such petty second-class argument that is now being circulated throughout this district. What the working people should demand to know is why has the price of foodstuffs and the necessaries of life advanced at so much greater rate than wages under Republican rule in the Nation.—Newbern Sun.

It takes a Dutchman to get at things in the proper way. In Berlin the people have decided that it is not the proper thing to have all the people taxed to pay for electric lights to burn all night, because all honest people, they hold, should be in bed by 10 o'clock, so they have arranged a system whereby the man who is out late and wants to see how to get home can get the light, but he must pay in advance to get it. On each street corner is a tiny iron box, in which burns a tiny light. The man who wants more light simply drops a piece of money in the box—a kind of nickel in the slot machine—and on go the lights for two blocks and they burn just 12 minutes, then without more money they go out automatically. It's a good idea—pass it along.—Greensboro Record.

An imposing manument to the memory of Grover Cleveland is to be erected at Princeton. It is to cost $100,000, of which sum $77,000 are already in hand. The site selected for the manument is the highest point of the old battlefield, overlooking the Graduate school. The memorial will be in the form of a Gothic tower, about 150 feet high and 40 feet square, of silver-gray granite, combining architectural beauty and strength. The interior will be fitted up with chambers to be used for preserving the personal and political relics associated with Mr. Cleveland's life work. This will be the first public monumental testimonial to Mr. Cleveland, but it can not be many years before a National Cleveland monument will be erected.—Savannah News.

MEARES IN COLUMBUS.

To Make Cancass of County—Mr. Williamson Invited—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Sept. 27.—Hon. Iredell Meares, Republican nominee for Congress in this district, is preparing to make an active campaign in Columbus county. The entire county is billed for Mr. Meares. He will open with a speech at Whiteville October 3rd, and follow it up with a visit to every section, some days making two addresses. His friends are actively at work, and trying to get out large crowds to hear him. The programme covers the entire county, even remote sections and winds up at New Berlin. Mr. Meares has no possible hope of carrying Columbus county, but he has many personal friends among Democrats and they will see that he is courteously treated.

A gentleman who recently made a tour over the Sixth district, estimates that Godwin's majority over Meares will exceed 7,000. Many Republicans declare their intention to support Godwin.

Mr. J. R. Williamson, of Whiteville, a leading member of the local bar, has received requests to deliver speeches in different sections of the State in the interest of Democracy. Mr. Williamson is fearful that his health will not permit him to comply, but it is quite a compliment to one of our most popular citizens.

Sunday evening, at the residence of Rev. J. J. Adams, in Whiteville, Mr. Henry F. McDaniel, a prominent young business man of Vineland, and Miss Carline Stevens, of Pleasant Plains, Columbus county, were married. The bride is a lovely young lady and secretary of the News-Reporter's correspondents' Association. This is the third correspondent that paper has recently had captured by Cupid.

Parties in town today say that excessive rains have seriously interfered with cotton picking. They also say the recent cold snap has caused many squares to shed. There is no longer doubt about the cotton crop being badly cut off in this county. The Farmers' Union is very strong in Columbus and its members are all holding their cotton in expectation of an advance in price.

Counsel Assigned to Represent Defendant Asked for Time to Prepare Case—Arraigned Yesterday Afternoon—Arson.

J. C. Holly, proprietor of the burned Rock Springs Hotel, located at Chesnut, between Water and Market streets, was arraigned in Superior Court at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the charge of the murder of young Edward Cromwell, whose body was found in a room at the hotel during the progress of the fire that gutted the building early on the morning of August 10th. He entered a plea of not guilty to the charge.

A. G. Ricaud, Esq., asked to be allowed to withdraw as counsel for the defendant and Judge Whedbee assigned Woodus Kellum, Wm. J. Bellamy and C. D. Weeks, Esqs., to represent the defendant. Mr. Kellum asked that the trial of the case be continued until the next term of court owing to the fact that counsel had not had time to prepare a defense. Solicitor Duffy did not insist upon trial at this term, doubtless appreciating the fact that the lawyers assigned by the court had not had sufficient time to prepare their case. The court granted the request for continuance.

Holly wore a very dejected look, but appeared to be calm and self-possessed. To those in the court room he appeared as though he were accustomed to taking some drug.

Later in the afternoon the grand jury returned a true bill against Holly for arson, it being charged that he set fire to the hotel building. The theory of the prosecution is that Holly, after giving young Cromwell poison, set fire to the building to cover up the crime. He held an insurance policy on the life of Cromwell for $2,500 and also had his furniture and effects heavily insured. Deputy Insurance Commissioner W. A. Scott, who has been looking into the incendiary phase of the case, has evidence to the effect that nearly all of the goods upon which insurance was carried had been removed to Wayne county some days before the fire. Of course, the arson case is also continued until the next term of court.

Solicitor Duffy will not be here to prosecute the defendant when the case is called at the next term, as his term of office expires before that time. The Democratic nominee for the solicitorship, Mr. Shaw, will be the solicitor at that time.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

"Bud Pigford Found Guilty of Assault in Two Cases.

Recorder Furlong had a number of cases before him yesterday morning. "Bud" Pigford, a young white man, was arraigned on the charge of assault with deadly weapon in two cases, as a result of a disturbance he created at the store of Mr. G. E. Burnett, corner Sixth and Dawson streets, Saturday night. He was charged with assault on Mr. Burnett and also on Owen Brinson, a young white man, and was found guilty in both cases. A fine of $25 and costs in each case was entered against him. He had not paid the amount yesterday afternoon. Walter P. Gafford, Esq., represented the defendant.

Grant Hines, colored, was tried on the charge of assault with deadly weapon on Queen Ann McKoy, colored, on the 26th day of last March. Ever since the alleged assault Hines has been on the dodge and it was not until early yesterday morning that the officers were able to capture him. The woman testified that Hines slashed her with a knife in two places without any provocation to speak of. He was found guilty and a fine of $25 and costs entered against him. A. G. Ricaud, Esq., appeared for the defendant.

Annie Telfair, colored, was found guilty of the charge of assault with deadly weapon on Susan Gill, colored, whom she is alleged to have cut with a knife and was sentenced to three months on the county farm.

Dr. Chas. T. Harper Removes From Southern Building—Specialist.

The handsome sanitarium, which Dr. Chas. T. Harper, the specialist, has been having erected at Front and Castle streets, has now been completed and Dr. Harper has moved from offices in the Southern Building to the new sanitarium, where he is now prepared to receive patients. Dr. Harper announces that he will have no associates in the management of the sanitarium or in the conduct of his private practice but the sanitarium will be open to all reputable physicians who are invited to send patients there for treatment. Dr. Harper has built a most creditable institution and as such enterprises have proved infinitely successful elsewhere, there is no reason why the sanitarium should not be a great blessing to this community and surrounding country.

CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT.

Mr. J. M. Lord, who is well and pleasantly known to many Wilmington people, has been placed in charge of the city circulation of the Morning Star, on the south side of Princess street, succeeding Mr. R. S. Haddock, who has been with the paper for several years and resigned to take a position in his old line of hardware with the N. Jacobi Hardware Co. While regretting to lose the services of Mr. Haddock the Star commends Mr. Lord to its friends and patrons upon whom he will call from time to time in the discharge of his duties.

COURT FINISHES ITS WORK

Term Will Expire by Limitation—Judge Leaves This Morning—Mina Bessent Gets Two Years—Night Session.

In order to dispose of all the cases on the docket ready for trial at this term without the necessity of incurring the expense of another day's sitting, Superior Court was in session until 11 o'clock last night, winding up everything that could be reached at this term.

While court did not formally adjourn for the term at that hour, it being decided to let it expire by limitation, Judge H. W. Whedbee, who persided will leave this morning for his home at Greenville to spend the remainder of the week, and Solicitor Rodolph Duffy will also probably leave during the day for his home in Onslow county. The grand jury will hold another session this morning, at which its report will be completed and later turned over to the Clerk of Superior Court, who will discharge the jurors for the term. The jury could have finished its work yesterday, but at the suggestion of the solicitor decided to hold over until today.

J. D. Futch, a white man of Pender county, was tried on the charge of disposing of mortgaged property, the case coming up on appeal from the Recorder's court, where the defendant was fined $50 and costs a few days ago. The case was originally heard before Justice Harriss and the defendant bound over to the Recorder's court. The charge was brought by R. T. Sanders, of Pender county, who alleges that he held a mortgage on certain cattle which the defendant butchered and brought to this city and sold to one of the local butchers. The defendant was represented by W. P. Gafford, Esq., of this city, and R. K. Bryan, Esq., of Scott's Hill. K. C. Sidbury, Esq., appeared with the solicitor for the prosecution. The case did not go to the jury, the judge instructing a verdict of not guilty. Another bill of indictment charging the same offense was drawn by the solicitor and sent before the grand jury which returned "not true." The defendant was discharged and the witnesses excused.

Chas. Hankins, colored, was found guilty of the charge of larceny from the person of Chas. Tyson, colored, near Sixth and Campbell streets, one night some weeks ago, and was sentenced by Judge Whedbee to 18 months on the county roads, the term to begin at the expiration of the three months' sentence he is now serving from the Recorder's court. It will be recalled that Chas. Tyson was held up and robbed at the point of a pistol near Sixth and Campbell streets some weeks ago and some days later Hankins was arrested and identified by Tyson as the person who committed the robbery. Two cases were brought against Hankins, one charging assault with deadly weapon and the other larceny from the person. The Recorder had jurisdiction in the case charging asault and for this he sentenced Hankins to three months on the roads. The other case was sent to Superior Court, and heard yesterday, as stated.

Henrietta Hill colored pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery preferred against her by Mr. R. E. Blake, and was sentenced to two years at the county farm. The woman was at one time a servant in the home of Mr. Blake and some weeks ago she wrote an order for a pair of slippers and signed Mr. Blake's name to it. The forgery was detected, however, before she got the shoes, and within a short time the woman had been arrested by Mr. Blake, who was deputized for the purpose.

The case of State against Bill Cobb, an appeal from the costs in a magistrat's court, was dismissed. Some weeks ago Mr. B. M. Lehue, who conducts a barber shop on Princess, between Front and Second streets, indicted Bill Cobb, colored, on the charge of trespass. The warrant was sworn out before Justice Bornemann, but the case removed to Justice Harriss, who found that the prosecution was frivilous and malicious and dismissed the action at the cost of the prosecutor, who took an appeal from the costs to Superior Court. He lost his case in the higher court and will now have to pay about $16 cost instead of $2 he would have paid in the magistrate's court.

Much of the time of the morning session of court was consumed in the trial of a case against Jas. Edwards, colored, charged with setting fire to the city prison, sent up from the Recorder's court. Two officers testified to the fire in Edward's cell and to a remark made by him at the time to the effect that he started the fire and that he had more matches and would try the stunt again. The defendant denied the charge. He was represented by Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq. The case went to the jury about 11 o'clock. At 4:20 P. M. the jury came into the court room and stated that they were hopelessly divided. One of the jurors said that there were 11 for conviction and one for acquittal. Judge Whedbee sent the jurors back to continue their deliberations. At 5 o'clock a verdict of guilty with recommendation of mercy was returned. Judge Whedbee said that he would give the defendant two years on the roads, but for the recommendation of the jury; it being his policy to pay heed to recommendations of the jury he would cut the sentence in half, giving the negro 12 months on the roads.

Judge Whedbee sentenced Jas. Register, the young white man, convicted Monday on the charge of stealing a bicycle, to two years on the county roads. The defendant entered a plea of guilty in the other two cases of larceny and judgment in these was suspended.

Practically all the afternoon session was devoted to the trial of Mina Bessent, colored, about 19 years old, of respectable parentage, charged with concealing the birth of a child on or about April 10th. Several witnesses were examined to show that on or about that date the body of a mulatto infant was found under a vacant house a short distance from the house occupied by the Bessents; the subsequent arrest of Mina Bessent and her mother and the circumstances tending to connect them with the crime; and also the alleged confession of Mina Bessent to Constable Savage, who arrested her. At the preliminary hearing the elder Bessent was discharged, but Mina Bessent was bound over to higher court on the charge of concealing the birth of the child. The grand jury at the last term of Superior Court found a true bill for concealing the birth of the child and also one charging murder. The solicitor decided to take a nol pros in the case charging murder. Mine Bessent took the stand yesterday afternoon in her own behalf and admitted everything except that she concealed the birth of the caild.

She was represented by Wm. J. Bellamy, Ssq., while Woodus Kellum, Esq., conducted the prosecution for the solicitor, who was engaged elsewhere at the time. The case went to the jury late in the afternoon and at 9 o'clock last night a verdict of guilty, with recommendation of mercy, was returned. Judge Whedbee, taking cognizance of the recommendation of the jury, sentenced the defendant to two years in the county jail, with leave to the County Commissioners to hire her out.

Q. K. Nimocks, Esq., of Fayetteville, was here yesterday in connection with the case against M. E. Guy, who was indicted some two years ago on the charge of abandonment, and who gave $1,000 for his appearance at trial. It appears that the defendant is now living with his wife and children in Petersburg, Va., and Judge Whedbee signed a judgment ordering the forfeiture of bond stricken out and vacated, and the action dismissed upon payment of costs.

The grand jury yesterday afternoon returned "not a true bill" in the case against C. E. Kizzah, a young white man, who was charged with the larceny of a half pint of whiskey from Alex. Bannerman, colored.

The case against Moses Sessoms, colored, charged with the larceny of 70 cents in money, a shirt and a few other articles from the store of Albert Miller, colored, was continued until the next term of court on account of the absence of the prosecuting witness. Officers searched the city yesterday for Miller, but he could not be found. Judge Whedbee recognized the defendant for his appearance at trial at the January term.

Whiskey Case Tried.

There being only one case in which some entry had not been made and the judge being anxious to conclude the business of the court before adjournment for the day, the case against E. M. Roderick, a young white man, charged with violating the prohibition law, was called at 6 o'clock. Roderick, who was in business on Dock street, was charged with selling a half pint of whiskey to Alex. Bannerman, a negro youth, on a Sunday morning some weeks ago, the negro claiming that C. E. Kizzah, a young white mn, held him up on the streets and took the whiskey away from him. As above noted the grand jury did not return a true bill against Kizzah. Roderick was tried before Substitute Recorder George Harris, who found him guilty and sentenced him to six months on the county roads, from which he took an appeal to Superior Court. He was represented by Woodus Kellum and A. J. Marshall, Esq.

It took more than an hour to select the jury. Mr. Sigmond Bear, one of the regular jurors, who was among those called to sit in the case, stated that he did not believe in the prohibition law in this county unless the people of New Hanover county had expressed themselves in favor of prohibition. He was excused by the State. Mr. Jeff Lewis, another regular juror, called to sit in the case, was even stronger than that against the enforcement of the prohibition law. He stated, in reply to a question from Judge Whedbee, that he would not return a verdict of guilty against a man charged with selling whiskey even if the evidence was such as to show clearly that he was guilty. "You are excused for the term," said Judge Whedbee, "you are not the proper person to sit on a jury."

The following composed the jury as finally selected shortly before 7 o'clock: W. E. Perdew, E. P. Willard, H. B. Murray, J. L. Daniels, E. W. Hollis, R. J. Darden, T. J. Seeders, W. G. Cleapor, F. A. Fennell, J. A. Williams, W. F. Carpenter and F. E. Hashagen. Adjournment was then taken until 7:45 o'clock, when the taking of testimony was commenced.

The evidence of Bannerman was to the effect that he purchased half a pint of whiskey from the defendant on a Sunday morning some weeks ago and that the whiskey was taken away from him by a white man on the streets. Patrolman M. C. Huggins testified to what the negro told him about the purchase at the time and also stated that he had seen persons coming ou of the place with bottles in their pockets. The defendant went on the stand and denied that he had sold any whiskey. Several witnesses testified to the good character of Roderick.

Argument of counsel was then commenced, Woodus Kellum, Esq., for the defendant, speaking first, followed by A. J. Marshal, for the defendant, Solicitor Duffy concluding for the State. The case was given to the jury at 10:50 o'clock and after being out about taree minutes a verdict of not guilty was returned. The defendant was then discharged.

Judge Whedbee has impressed the members of the bar and all others in attendance upon court, as one of the most able judges who have presided over court in this county, and the rapidity with which he dispatches business is a subject of much favorable comment. Deputy Clerk of Superior Court W. H. Harris stated last night that the criminal side of the docket was the nearest clear that he had known it in the five years he has been in the office.

BALTIMORE DRAFTS POPE.

Former Carolina Player Goes to Eastern League.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 27.—Ashley Pope, a right handed pitcher, who worked in the South Atlantic League this season, has been signed by the Baltimore Club of the Eastern League. Pope has been drafted by the New York National League team, but was let go because Manager McGraw found he had gone above the limit permitted in the matter of players. Pope formerly played in the Eastern Carolina League.

MISS LILLIAN M. PHELPS.

Lecture on Temperance at Grace Church on October 6th.

The people of Wilmington are fortunate in having secured the privilege of hearing Miss Lillian M. Phelps in a lecture on the Temperance Question at Grace Church on October 6th.

She comes here directly from the State convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which will be held in Newbern, October 1st to 5th, at which she will be one of the leading spirits. Miss Phelps, who has earned an international reputation as a lecturer, comes of New England ancestry—those who came over to America in Pilgrim and Puritan days, and were the early settlers of Massachusetts and Connecticut—those men and women who gave to New England its character and conscience.

Miss Phelps graduated from the National School of Oratory in the days when Dr. Edward Brooks was president, and at her graduation as orator for her class chose the temperance question. She has been before the public in W. C. T. U. conventions, chautauquas, Women's Clubs, etc. A student by nature of historical and sociological questions, she comes, with study and travel, an interesting lecturer. She has crossed the continent four times as well as having enjoyed extensive European travel. She is a local preacher in the "church of her childhood."

From this testimonial, it would seem that every man and woman of culture and intelligence would avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this gifted woman.

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT.

For Benefit of Fund to Purchase Organ for Salvation Army.

Convinced of the great good being accomplished through the agency of the local post of the Salvation army and desirous of showing their appreciation in a substantial way, a number of young people of Delgado have arranged to give an entertainment Friday night in the hall of the Salvation Army, on Market street, near Second, the proceeds to go to a fund to secure an organ for the Army Hall. An attractive programme has been arranged and a pleasant evening is promised all who attend. A free will offering will be taken.

The Army moved into its new quarters last week and the new hall on Market street was formerly opened with the services last Sunday. Adjutant Geo. P. Williams, who is in charge of the post, is very highly pleased with his new quarters.

This is known as "Harvest Week" in the Salvation Army's calendar of special events. It is the week in the year when a special effort is made to secure contributions to the worthy work in which the Army is engaged. Adjutant Williams has arranged for a special Thanksgiving Service for Sunday night next and hopes to have a large attendance.

Announcement is made that Staff Captain Brooks, traveling officer of the Army, will be in Wilmington Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 11th, 12th and 13th, and will hold services in the Army Hall on those dates.

MISS MUSE PASSES AWAY.

Wilmington Friends of the Family Will Learn of Death With Sadness.

The Wilmington friends of Mr. W. H. Muse, of Durham, brother of Mr. F. A Muse, of this city, will learn with deep regret of the death of his daughter, Miss Mildred Muse, which occurred at the family home in Durham Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The deceased had been ill for a month or more with typhoid fever. She was a young lady with admirable traits of character and her untimely death is particularly sad to the members of the family and her many friends in that city and elsewhere. The funeral was held yesterday and the remains interred in Durham.

DR. GEO. F. LUCAS.

Wilmington Friends Interested in His Campaign for Legislature.

Many Wilmington friends of Dr. Geo. F. Lucas, of Currie, were interested in the card in yesterday morning's paper in which many voters of Pender county urged upon Dr. Lucas to allow his name to be presented for the General Assembly from that county, and will be pleased to know that the information from Pender yesterday was to the effect that he had acceded to the importunities of his friends and will make the race. Dr. Lucas is a fine type of the intellectual, cultured Southern gentleman and, if elected, will reflect credit upon himself and upon his canstituency.

WILMINGTONIANS SUCCESSFUL.

Handsome New Hospital for City of Goldsboro—The Proposals.

A long distance telephone message last night from Goldsboro stated that not only had a Wilmington architect, Mr. H. E. Bonitz, had his plans accepted for the structure, but that the Brunswick Wood & Lumber Co., of this city had received the contract for the construction of the handsome new $20,000 hospital for that city. Mr. Bonitz attended a meeting of the trustees of the hospital last night and after considering rival propositions from a number of bidders all over the State accepted the Wilmington proposals which is a decided compliment to both the architect and the Wood and Lumber Company.

The Clyde Liner Colorado.

With cargo of 2,500 bags of cement, the Clyde liner Colorado, Capt. Schleimier, arrived in port yesterday from New York. This is the extra ship put on by the Clyde Line, which usually visits this port every two weeks. Her cargo is consigned to the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Company and the vessel comes to H. G. Smallbones.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 27—While flight ing fire in the debris of the Houston Transfer Company's building which was burned last night, 35 firemen today were burned and scalded by an explosion of carbide but none was fatally injured.

New York, Sept. 27.—Because of her failure to declare eleven gowns valued by customs appraisers at $1,353, Mrs. Horatio N. Slater, of Boston, will have to pay $2,196.28 to retain them. The dresses were ordered seized today by Surveyor Henry and will be sold unless the custom charges are satisfied.

FRENCH MILLINERY PARLORS.

First of Fall Openings Attracted the Ladies of City Yesterday.

An unusually large number of shoppers were seen on the streets yesterday. Needless to say that the season for the annual Fall millinery openings has arrived. The first this season was the opening of the French Millinery Parlors, on the third floor of Mr. A. D. Brown's dry goods store, No. 29 North Front street, and it was this that caused such a large number of shoppers to throng the streets during the day. From early in the morning until late in the afternoon were noticed hundreds of ladies going to and from the popular millinery parlors. As usual, the shoppers found on display the most exclusive styles arranged in the most attractive manner. The handsome display of the beautiful creations were such as to cause many exclamations of joy from the shoppers. The millinery parlors are perhaps the more complete this year than ever before, which is saying much, and yesterday was undoubtedly the most successful in the history of the establishment on the first day of the opening. The French Millinery Parlors are too well known by the ladies of Wilmington and surrounding section who desire the latest that Dame Fashion has decreed to need extended comment, for nothing could be said here to add to the popularity of one of Wilmington's most exclusive millinery establishments. The opening will continue through today and tomorrow and doubtless hundreds of others who were unable to visit the parlors yesterday will do so before the hour of closing tomorrow afternoon.

GREAT REVIVAL IN PROGRESS.

Much Interest in Series of Meetings at Brooklyn Baptist Church.

The revival which began at Brooklyn Baptist Church last Sunday is growing in interest at every service. Rev. O. L. Powers, of High Point, who is assisting the pastor, is preaching the Gospel with eloquence and power. His theme last night was "First Giving Themselves." At the close of this sermon a large number of Christian people responded to an invitation to reconsecrate themselves to God and many that were not professing Christians expressed a desire to give themselves to His service. The congregation was large and attentive and the message was powerful and convincing.

Mr. Powers will address the men at the railroad shops today at noon and will preach at the church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon when his subject will be "Mother's Prayer." It is hoped that many mothers and their sons and daughters will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this touching and important subject presented. Tonight his subject will be "Sowing Wild Oats." All are cordially invited to attend all the services.

IS IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

Negro Cut at Macomber's Monday Night May Not Recover.

William Dry, colored, who was severely slashed by another negro while attending a frolic at Macomber's near Wrightsville Sound, Monday night, continues in a serious condition, but has a chance to recover. James Abbott, colored, employed as porter at the general offices of the A. C. L., was arrested yesterday morning by Patrolman M. C. Huggins on a warrant charging him with the cutting. Abbott was lodged in the county jail. He was taken last night to the hospital by Sergeants Howell and Wood to see if the wounded man could identify him as his assailant. Sergeant Wood stated that Dry said that Abbott was not the man who did the cutting. Abbott, however, was taken back to jail pending developments.

W Imington Convocation.

The Fall meeting of the Convocation of Wilmington will convene today in the new Episcopal Church at Red Springs and will continue in session through Friday morning. It is expected that all the churches in the Convocation will be well represented by delegates and practically all the rectors will be in attendance The handsome new house of worship of the Red Springs Parish will be dedicated Friday morning. The programme of the meeting has previously been published.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 27.—The Democratic State convention held there brief sessions today and listened to the expounding of party doctrines and predictions of party success at the polls. The resolutions committee did not report and a night session was held to await a platform. Congressman Lloyd, of Missouri, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, declared that "it looks like a Democratic year."

EATS WHAT HE LIKES AFTER TAKING FREE SAMPLE

It will be welcome news to dyspeptics to learn of a remedy that, in the opinion of thousands, is an absolute cure for indigestion and all forms of stomach trouble, and better still, it is guaranteed to do so. The remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

We all know the value of pure pepsin in indigestion, and add to those some exceptional laxative ingredients and you have a truly wonderful remedy. Mr. T. W. Worthy, of Forsythe, Ga., got to the point where he could not even eat or digest vegetables and after many years of seeking he found the cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. Rudy Kasner of Moline, Ill., was in the same bad predicament with his stomach, took Syrup Pepsin and is now cured. Hundreds of others would gladly testify.

It is a guaranteed cure for indigestion, constipation, billiousness, headaches, gas on the stomach and similar complaints. A bottle can be had at any drug store for fifty cents or a dollar, but if you wish to make a test of it first send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will supply a free sample bottle, sent direct to your address. You will soon admit that you have found something to replace salts, cathartics, breath perfumes and other temporary reliefs. Syrup Pepsin will cure you permanently.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.

TILLMAN HAS LOST GRIP.

Senator Will Never Again Take Active Part in Senate.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 26.—"Senator Tillman never again will take an active part in Senate proceedings, and he will not be re-elected when his term expires."

Do-Veaux Porter, of Horry county, S. C., in the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel today, thus summarized the political future of one of the most interesting figures in the National capital for many years.

"It is common talk in South Carolina," said Mr. Porter, 'that for physical reasons alone there would be little likelihood of Mr. Tillman ever again being able to take up actively the work of a political leader. Before this last attack he had an illness that sent him abroad for months in an effort to recover, and since his return, though he seems about normal, he has dropped into the background. All through the tariff fight he seemed to be drifting along.

"The truth is Tillman has lost his grip on the State. Ever since he defeated Hampton for the Senate, his position had been undisputed, but at his last election, when there was no candidate who dared oppose him, 15,000 men scratched his name on the ballot, just to show they didn't like him. That was a straw in the wind. It's strange, but even at the height of his power he never had been able to name office-holders in the State, and the dispensary, which was his favorite issue, has been legislated out of existence, in spite of his strenuous defense of it."

INSURANCE COMMISSIONERS.

Representing Companies in This Country and Canada.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 27.—With insurance commissioners present from all parts of the United States and officers and representatives of insurance companies of this country and Canada watching the proceedings, the 41st annual convention of the National Insurance Commissioners' Association met here this morning. President J. A. Hartigan, of St. Paul, Minn., presided.

The most important report was that of the committee appointed to investigate expenses of fire insurance companies. It recommended the adoption by insurance companies of a uniform rate of compensation for agents and brokers.

The question of the adoption of a uniform bill regulating fraternal insurance societies will be considered tomorrow.

These women are only a few of thousands of living witnesses of the power of Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. Not one of these women ever received compensation in any form for the use of their names in this advertisement—but are willing that we should refer to them because of the good they may do other suffering women to prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable and honest medicine, and that the statements made in our advertisements regarding its merit are the truth and nothing but the truth.

COMPLICATIONS WITH ITALY.

May Result From Lynching of Italians in Tampa.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 27.—That complications with the Italian government may result from the lynching of Angelo Albano, here a week ago was indicated today when Count Maroni, special agent of the Italian government with headquarters at New Orleans, found Albano's passports from Italy. The burden, it is said, is upon the United States now to prove that he was an American citizen.

Count Maroni has communicated his findings to the Italian ambassador at Washington and an investigation will follow. There is no question now but that Castengo Ficarotta, the other man executed, was an American subject.

At the request of Count Maroni, Governor Gilchrist has suppressed the sale, circulating or exhibition of pictures of the two men as they were swinging from the limb the morning following the execution. Local photographers reaped a rich harvest from the sale of these pictures.

U. P. OFFICIAL DIED.

Wounded While in His Office—Said to be Accidental.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 27.—Donald P. Stubbs, son of John C. Stubbs vice president and traffic manager of the Harriman lines, who was found in the offices of the Union Pacific Railroad here at midnight on Saturday with a revolver bullet over his heart, died this evening.

According to the story told by young Stubbs before his death, the shooting was accidental, occurring while he was examining a new revolver. He was alone in the offices. The father and mother of the young man were with him at the time of his death. The body will be taken to Ashland, O., in the morning for interment.

Mr. Stubbs was 30 years old and for the past six months had been general agent of the Union Pacific Railroad in this city. He was married in June to Miss Marguerite Wheeler, of New York.

THE PROGRESSIVES WIN.

Their Platform Adopted by Republicans in New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 27.—A platform constructed by progressive members of the party was adopted unanimously a. the Republican State Convention here today. Under the new primary law this was the only work which the convention had to do. The administration of President Taft was endorsed to the extent of a commendation of "the Republican achievements of the last Congress under the leadership of President Taft in carrying out in such a large measure the policies inaugurated by Theodore Roosevelt."

The party nominee for Governor, Robert A. Bass, addressed the convention, which was presided over by Dr. John M. Gile, of Hanover.

POSTMATERS' CONVENTION.

Omaha May be Next Place of Meeting—Without Presedent.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 27.—Two extended business sessions were held by the National Convention of Postmasters of the first class in session here today. The topics of most interest discussed were pensions for superannuated employes and methods of informing the public on postal matters.

The accepted belief is that the convention next year will go West, probably to Omaha, and it seems to be practically settled that the next president of the association will be Fred G. Withoft, of Dayton, Ohio, who is now first vice-president.

The annual banquet of the association was held this evening, and proved a brilliant affair.

THE SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

speaker's stand and after striking out three of the names submitted, announced the resolutions committee, among whom were William Barnes, Jr., Speaker James W. Wadsworth, of the Assembly, George W. Aldridge, Senator Cobb, author of the recently defeated direct primary bill, former Mayor Seth Low, of New York City, Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University, Senator Brackett, Representative Sereno Payne and Representative J. Sloat Fassett.

Talk of gubernatorial candidates was submerged during the day by the main contest waged over the temporary chairmanship, but tonight friends of Representative Bennet, of New York, Frederick C. Stevens, State Superintendent of Public Works, Henry L. Stimson, former United States District Attorney in New York, were out scouting to secure votes for their candidates.

Chairman Woodruff Loses Out.

State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, of Brooklyn, one of the old guard leaders was one of the first to feel the effect of the progressives victory in the State convention today. Delegates from Kings county in the third Congressional district at a meeting tonight retired Mr. Woodruff as State committeeman and elected Alfred E. Vase to succeed him.

Members of the two other Congressional districts reported that they were ready to elect Mr. Woodruff a member of the State committee, but it was reported that the State chairman had said he was ready to retire from politics. This Mr. Woodruff denied, stating that he has 19 of the 23 Brooklyn districts and intends to remain as leader.

There were numerous reports tonight that Col. Roosevelt had indicated that he did not desire Mr. Woodruff to be returned to the new State committee.

Charge Against Roosevelt.

William Barnes, Jr., leader of the old guard, in a statement tonight declared that Col. Roosevelt has used his "cudgel" against the delegates from Vice-President Sherman's district, because "Mr. Sherman dared to oppose him."

"The result of the fight in the convention is entirely satisfactory," said Mr. Barnes. "That 443 delegates out of 1,015 withstood the charge which tried to ride rough shod over their convictions and their sense of orderly political procedure is of everlasting credit to them."

United States Senator Elihu Root was selected tonight by the committe on permanent organization as permanent chairman and will address the convention tomorrow.

Roosevelt in Conference.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Col. Roosevelt held an extended conference tonight with United States Senator Root, Lloyd C. Griscom and Charles S. Francis of Troy former ambassador to Austria, to consider the available candidates for Governor. It was learned that Henry L. Stimson, former United States district attorney of New York, who successfully prosecuted the sugar trust officials; Comptroller Prendergast, of New York and State Senator Harvey D. Hinman, of Binghamton, were considered, and that Col. Roosevelt leans strongly towards Senator Hinman.

Lloyd C. Griscom said late tonight that no decision had been reached and that it was the sense of the conference that nothing could be said at this time. The conference was expected to continue well into Wednesday morning.

WOMAN'S TERRIBLE DEED.

Negress Drowned Children and Set Fire to Her House.

Anderson, S. C., Sept. 27.—To get even with her husband who, she said, has mistreated her, a negro woman living on the plantation of Mr. J. J. Smith, near Starr, S. C., placed her two children, aged 1 and 5 years respectively, in a barrel of water beneath a drain at her home, and then fired the house.

The younger child was drowned, but the other managed to climb out of the barrel and told the neighbors of the act.

She was arrested and has confessed her guilt of the crime. The house was destroyed with all its contents. The woman is in jail.

GOVERNMENT REPLIES.

Makes Answer to Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 27.—The Federal government today filed its reply to the recent answer of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association to the petition looking to the dissolution of the association. The reply is a denial of the contentions as reasserted by the grocers in their reply. Request will now be made for the appointment of special masters to take testimony in the dissolution suit.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Cures Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Co. has sold dozens of jars of Hokara in the last few weeks, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing to them is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief and cure in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara will give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases will be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal-sized jar at the very low price of 25c and with every package goes their guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory. Larger size, 50c.

GAYNOR'S LETTER PUBLIC.

Step to Prevent His Nomination by Democratic State Convention.

New York, Sept. 27.—James Creelman, of New York, made public today a letter from Mayor Gaynor. Mr. Creelman decided on this step because he was convinced today that nothing, but this action would prevent Mr. Gaynor's nomination by the Democratic State Convention. The letter which is dated St. James, Sept. 26, and addressed to Mr. Creelman, says:

"I am this day writing a letter to Chairman Dix stating that I am not a candidate for nomination for Governor and refuse to become such. I do this to remove all doubt on the subject which may arise by reason of irresponsible statements which I am informed are being circulated. No utterance of mine has put the matter in doubt. Some have said to me that the convention may nominate me although I am not a candidate. It seems to me that it might appear vain or egotistical for me to assume in my letter to Mr. Dix that the extraordinary thing might happen. I therefore write this supplemental letter to you to take to Rochester and show as to prevent my nomination if it should appear to be eminent.

"Make it plain if nominated I would decline to accept. I could not abandon to their fate the splendid men who I have appointed to office and who are working so hard for good goverment nor could I abandon the people of New York after so short service. You may make this letter public in advance of going to Rochester if in your judgment you think the situation calls for it. But do not do so unless it is plainly necessary. Every honest man will understand me."

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 27.—If a twelve-inch armor piercing shell had come crashing down through the roof of the Hotel Seneca there could not have been more consternation among the Democrats on the floor of the lobby tonight, than when the first news of Mayor Gaynor's letter to James Creelman burst among them.

If the blight of a heavy frost had been lifted from a field of flowers, they could not have raised their heads more gratefully to the revivifying warmth of the sun, than did the seven individual booms and boomlets now sprouting lustily. The Mayor's final word declining to be a candidate in terms so unmistakable that they were no longer to be misinterpreted changed the whole face of the political may in the twinkling of an eye.

Previously the tone of the town has been hesitant and cautious. Uncommitted delegates and leaders had been hesitant and cautious. Uncommitted delegates and leaders had been wary of putting themselves down in black and white.

John H. McCooey, of Kings county, successor to the late Senator Patrick McCarren, had been openly for Gaynor and Patrick E. McCabe, of Albany, had said "there's nothing to it;" but the mass of doubting delegates had been waiting the outcome of a dinner given tonight by Thomas Finucane, a close friend of former State Chairman William J. Conners, to Messrs. Charles F. Murphy, State Chairman John A. Dix, Conners and Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee; William H. Fitzpatrick, who lately succeeded Conners as Democratic leader of Erie county; Daniel Cohalan, Murphy's lieutenant; Philip Donohue, treasurer of Tammany Hall, John H. McCooey and Pat E. McCabe and others.

When Mr. Murphy returned from the dinner he was asked if in his judgment the Mayor's letter did not definitely eliminate Gaynor from further consideration as a candidate.

"It would now appear so, wouldn't it" was his answer.

"Has Tammany any special candidate in view."

"No; I came up here to find out what the State wants."

"Was this letter discussed in any way at the dinner you have just attended?"

Mr. Murphy said that it was talked of, but no detailed comment had been made.

"But what is your own opinion of the letter, Mr. Murphy?"

"I have formed no opinion. We, meaning Tammany," he continued, "have no candidate. We came up here to find out what the State wants and we shall not know until the delegates arrive."

Chairman Dix gave out the following statement in regard to the Gaynor letter:

"The announcement of the contents of this Creelman letter merely reiterates the statement made by the mayor that he believes his first duty is to serve New York City and naturally we admire him for his holding to his honest convictions, even though some people might regret his failure to become a candidate for a higher office.

"It would seem that his announcement that he would not accept the nomination, if he were nominated, merely places the convention in the position of considering one less of the possible candidates for that position."

BATTLESHIPS RECORDS.

Delaware and North Dakota Leading In Annual Maneuvers.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Entering battle practice within three months after they went into commission, the American "dreadnaughts" Delaware and North Dakota probably have made the best records of any of the 16 battleships which participated in the annual maneuvers just completed on the Southern drill grounds.

It was learned unofficially that the Delaware is likely to be awarded the trophy with the North Dakota ranking not lower than third. The Idaho is regarded as a strong contender for second honors. The South Carolina and the Minnesota are expected to win fourth and fift places respectively.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—Serious internal injuries received in a football game yesterday coincident with an attack of appendicitis may prove fatal for Max Reinhart, aged 19, captain of the Santa Clara high school rugby team. Removed to a hospital at Oakland from Berkeley, where his team played the University of California freshmen, Reinhart was operated upon last night and his condition is said to be critical

CROATAN FOR MURDER.

Gus Hunt Jailed at Lumberton Charged With Heinous Crime.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., Sept. 27.—Gus Hunt, a Croatan, residing on the place of Mr. Sam Smith, in Thompson's township, this county, was placed in jail last night for killing his wife Sunday night. Hunt claims he did the shooting accidentally, but his story does not seem to be credited by some of his neighbors, who claim to have heard him quarreling with his wife during the afternoon. Deputy T. C. Barnes and Coroner Rancke went to the scene of the killing early yesterday morning. An inquest was held and the verdict of the jury was that the woman came to her death at the hands of her husband and he was committed to jail to await criminal court when it will be up to him to satisfy the jury that it was an accident.

Metz, Germany, Sept. 27.—Accompanied by a Roumanian officer as a passenger, Jeanin, the German aviator, today made an aero flight without a stop of 65 miles in two hours and eighteen minutes. He made the journey from Treves, Rhenish Prussia, to Metz, passing over Sierck and Diedenhofen, and won a prize of $7,500. Jeanin flew at an average height of sixteen hundred feet.

JUST TWO WEEKS OF SPECIAL OFFER

Contestants And Their Friends May Reap Rich Harvest in Contest.

HOW THE VOTE NOW STANDS

Announcement of Result of Balloting Up to Last Night—Proper Way to Secure Subscriptions. How It Works Out.

Two weeks from last Saturday!

That's all!

Just two weeks in which to work on the extra vote offer, as it will positively close two weeks from last Saturday, and is positively the best offer of the entire contest.

No Better Offer.

A good many people think that towards the last there will be a bigger and better special vote offer, but such will not be the case, because when this special offer closes two weeks from last Saturday, which is October 8th, the bonus offer that has prevailed during the special offer will be over.

Schedule May Be Lowered.

It might be possible that the schedule will be lowered after the special offer, making the last week very much lower than what it will be the few weeks following the close of the special vote offer. The Star could not very well afford to state one thing in the paper and then deliberately turn around and do what they claimed they would not do. Such action would necessarily shake the confidence of the people in the fairness and squareness of the contest, and it would prove detrimental in many other ways. The next two weeks is the time to get every promise which you can possibly secure, turn it into a subscription and hand same into the contest department.

Another thing, it seems to be misunderstood about turning in subscriptions. There are several who think it necessary to wait until the full club is completed before turning in their subscriptions. What a contestant should do is to turn in the subscriptions now, get credit for the number of votes, and as soon as the amount reaches $30, a certificate for the 35,000 bonus will be issued.

Votes May be Held Back.

Now these votes may be held back until the very last day of the entire contest. It is not necessary to cast them Nov. 1st. Neither is it necessary to hold them after Nov. 1st. All votes issued on subscriptions that count on the club offer may be cast at any time after November 1st, at the same time contestants can do as they please.

Turning in Subscriptions.

If you have a subscriber and turn it in, you will also be gaining a five-vote coupon every day which you are now losing. The subscriber would be receiving the paper, and would be taking a much more active interest in the contest if he were to read the paper every day.

Unfair to Contestant.

So it is really unfair to yourself and also to your subscriber to keep any of them back. A fair and accurate account will be kept by the contest department of votes turned in on the club offer, so that the bonuses will all be given immediately upon the amount reaching $30. Moreover, the contestants themselves are keeping track, so there is no possible chance of our attention not being called to the fact if a club is reached.

Two Ways of Soliciting.

There are two ways of soliciting subscriptions, one good and the other very bad. One scores A No. 1 first-class business, that is appreciated and renewed and the other secures business that is what you call "forced."

The right way to solicit subscriptions is to tell your prospective subscribers that the Morning Star is the best morning paper in the city of Wilmington, and as far as that is concerned, there is none better in the eastern part of the State, as it prints all the news all the time and in reality is the best exponent of journalism in eastern North Carolina.

Following is a most interesting list of contestants with the number of votes each have to their credit as the result of the count last night:

Home of Uncle Remus Will Be Preserved as Memorial of Author

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 27.—The Uncle Remus Memorial Association of Atlanta, of which Mrs. A. McD. Wilson is president and of which President Taft, former President Roosevelt, Andrew Carnegie and Henry Watterson are honorary vice presidents, is raising money to preserve the Atlanta home of the late Joel Chandler Harris as a memorial. Ever since the death of Uncle Remus on July 3, 1908, his home, known far and wide as Snap Bean farm, has been the Mecca of hundreds of pilgrims who know his tales. Colonel Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to speak at Atlanta on October 8th for the benefit of the association, and the money derived from his lecture will be added to the fund started by Andrew Carnegie with a check of $5,000. The house is now owned by the heirs of the dead author and is valued at more than $25,000. Several wealthy persons offered to buy the place and give it to the association, but the people of Atlanta thought that as Uncle Remus was known and beloved by so many all should be allowed to have a part in the purchase.

SOME OF THE BIG RACERS ALL OF THEM HEFTY MEN

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 1.—When Wagner came tearing down the home stretch of the Savannah road course in his dashing red Fiat one sunny November afternoon in 1908, and captured the Savannah Grand Prize contest, reporters and photographers crowded around the new Speed King. After a few casual questions a reporter asked him.

"Wagner, what do you consider are the qualities that make a great road driver?"

Wagner sank a little further down against the oily back of his tubby little seat, considered a minute and replied.

"Brains and nerve—mostly nerve."

Last Fall in Atlanta the same question was put to Barney Oldfield, just before he took the next to the most immemorial trouncing of his life at the hands of Lewis Strang.

Barney licked his black cigar still further into the corner of his capacious mouth and gave this verdict.

"To be a good racing driver a man should have not too much sense and a lot of strength."

Discounting the first part of Barney's utterance, for it can be proved that few drivers without brains have ever won consistently, you get to the real truth of the problem.

"Brute strength."

That's the answer.

There is not a really first-class road or track driver in the business in America today who is handling big cars and who is not at the same time a sturdy man with worlds of muscle in his forearms and with enough weight to keep him anchored in his seat, despite any ordinary jouncing.

What made Barney Oldfield a great driver?

Brute strength.

Oldfield brags that there was never a steering wheel made that he wouldn't carry away with him when he was thrown out of a car. After three of his most sensational "fence bustings" he was found stretched on the ground with the rim of his steering wheel grasped in his hands. His muscles had been stronger than the material of which the wheel was made. And this tremendous muscle equipment made it possible for him to drive at top speed around corners and down the straight aways.

There was an example this Summer on the Atlanta Speedway. In the early practice for a local meet F. H. McGill and Asa Candler, Jr., did all the tuning up for Mr. Candler's giant Fiat 60. This is a car which is particularly vicious at steering. It yanks and bucks and raises sand, especially on the turns. In every practice spin Mr. Candler could get two or three seconds better time for a round than his driver. Both wen are equally fearless and equally skilful. The secret lay in weight and proportionately more strength.

"Beef" is what is needed. Men pick their race drivers today as they picked football material in the old days.

"If they have the weight and strength we will teach 'em how to drive," the manuacturers say.

Look over the famous drivers of today. Take those for example who have raced on the Atlanta Speedway. Oldfield, as has been mentioned, is an elephant. George Robertson, who has done perhaps the most brilliant driving, all things considered, that was ever done on the Atlanta track, is huge. He isn't so tremendously tall but he is a solid piece of humanity and strong as a rhino. Jack Aitken, who drove Nationals so brilliantly in both of Atlanta's race meets, is not chunky but is a tall, rangy man with tremendous strength. Harding, who drove the Apperson cars last Fall, is another of the same stamp. Chevrolet, winner of the Coca-Cola trophy last Fall is a man of positively enormous strength, broad of shoulder and ponderous. Burman, his side partner who has never raced on the local Speedway, is a man of immense strength. Lytle, who won with his American machine this Spring is another whale.

The three heroes of the famous Grand Prize race at Savannah—Wagner, Hemery and Nazarro—are all men of tremendous strength. Wagner is a short man, but powerfully built. Hemery is the very picture of brute force. Nazarro is a man of greater height and slighter built, but he is broad of shoulder and deep of chest, and any man who has seen him wrench a fast-flying Fiat around a sharp turn will realize that he is a marvel of strength as well as skill.

Three-fourths of the other famous drivers who will be in Atlanta in the Fall are men of great power.

Ralph Mulford who won the big race at Elgin the other day and who will drive the same car in Atlanta which he drove there, is a whale. So is H. Grant, last year's Vanderbilt cup winner, who will bring down his Alco machine. Bruce Brown, the famous amateur of the Benz team, is enormous. E. H. Parker, the Fiat driver, is a big man. Joe Seymour, who was such a wonder on the Brooklands track in England, but who has not done much in this country, is a man of 225 pounds or thereabouts.

Joe Matson is big. Cagno, the famous Itala driver of the Savannah race, is stumpy, but a man of great strength.

All these are big men and strong. And their very strength has been a tremendous advantage to them in the racing game. If it were all straightaway driving feather weights could drive, provided they were strapped into their seats. But when it comes to rounding turns and dodging in and out among racing cars it takes wonderful muscle and weight as well. Besides weight, strength is needed and much of it must be in the forearm. If you look at a small driver you will notice that he has the forearms of a larger man.

Take a diminutive driver like Charley Basle who drove in Atlanta last Fall. He has forearms so developed as to be virtually abnormal. But even with all this strength, he can never hope to be a real top-notcher.

Take the small drivers who have won fame and you will note as a rule that they have won their honores in driving low powered cars. Billy Knipper did his best work with the small Chalmers machine. Bill Endicott has shone most brilliantly at the wheel of a diminutive Cole. Lewis Strang was at his best when driving a small Buick, though Strang, by the way, is no peewee, E. A. Hearne and Bert Dingley are small and are best when driving small cars. Ray Harroun is at his best at the wheel of a medium powered Marmon.

And so it goes, all up and down the line. It was the history of racing last season in Atlanta. It was the same this Spring. It has been the case all the season at Northern and Eastern courses. And it will be the same this Fall at the Atlanta course. There will be better drivers and higher powered cars there than ever before. And it will be the case that nine out of ten of the drivers will be men of great size and greater proportionate strength. For such men, and only such men, make great racing drivers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 27th.—The upper classes of the University have elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Seniors, W. A. Dees, Fremont, president; W. T. Joyner, Raleigh, vice-president; N. S. Mulligan, Clemmons, secretary and treasurer; R. G. Stockton, Winston, historian; J. F. Oliver, Mt. Olive, prophet; W. H. Jones, Yanceyville, poet; I. C. Moser, Rock Creek, orator; Geo. Graham, Charlotte, statistician; H. M. Solomon, writer; of last will and testament; E. W. Turlington, class representtative. Junior Class: A. D. Folger, president; J. C. Lockhart, vice-president; Fred Drane, secretary and treasurer; W. D. Phillips, historian; Benj. Cooke, captain of football team; E. C. Teague, manager of football team. A committee was appointed on class banquet and also to select class pins.

Probably the most unique and far-reaching event in the year's history of the University occurred yesterday when the Senior and Freshman academic classes held a joint meeting in Gerard Hall, at the suggestion of the Seniors at a recent meeting. President Dees stated the object of the meeting was to bring the Freshman class together and tell them in a friendly way what is expected of them as students of the University. A few representative men from the Senior Class then presented different phases of college life to the new men, Mr. G. W. Thompson made an analogy that the freshman were as a band of foreigners coming into a new country who had to conform to the laws of the country. They as members of the student body of the University would have to conform to its regulations and he asked them to do all in their power to uphold and strengthen these laws. Mr. I. C. Moser, class orator, urged the new men above all "to be men and put away childish things." "Red" Stuart suggested that the Freshmen be given a chance to reconsider their move in not expressing their willingness to pledge themselves against hazing next year as sophomores. This was done and when President Geo. Clark, of the Freshmen, called for a vote the entire body gave their assent unanimously. The following resolution was then read and all signified their willingness to sign:

"In view of the fact that the Class of 1914, at the beginning of its college course has determined to make its life in the University one of high purpose and service, be it,

"Resolved: That the class here puts itself on record colectively and individually against hazing of new men in all its forms and pledges itself to refrain from its practice and to use its influence against it."

President Dees closed the meeting with appropriate remarks and President Clark, of the Freshman Class, thanked the Senior Class for its interest and assured them of the appreciation of the Freshmen.

This is one of the greatest steps of the year to the aid of President Venabel in upbuilding the Greater University and all of the community, students and faculty alike are rejoiced over the outcome of the issue.

NEWS FROM WHITEVILLE.

Growing Wheat—Big Pear Crop—Roads—Other Items.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Sept. 27.—Last season several farmers in Columbus county made the experiment of planting wheat. The yields far surpassed their most sanguine expectations, the patches averaging over 20 bushels per acre, and some growers reported a yield of 25 bushels. There have recently been started up wheat mills at Cerro Gordo and Evergreen, and which are turning out a beautiful flour. This Fall many farmers will plant wheat, and mak enough to supply their families.

There are thousands of bushels of fine pears on the trees in this county and there is no market for them. They can be bought for $1 to $1.25 per barrel f.o.b. cars. There never was such a pear crop grown.

Capt. Grainger has built a splendid sand-clay road from Lebanon to Vineland and put the bad crossing at Soles Swamp in good condition for the Winter. He lacks only about a mile and a half of completing a 15 mile stretch of splendid road. This is one of the most important highways leading into Whiteville. The next work will start on the projected Charlotte-Wilmington highway, as our people are determined to be the first county to have its section completed.

Mr. Daniel R. Gore, Democratic nominee for county treasurer, returned from the Little River Baptist Association in Johnson county yesterday and says there were over 8,000 people in attendance Sunday. Mr. Gore says he spent one night with Congressman Godwin, who has a beautiful home and treated him most hospitably.

The Juniper Lumber Co., of Rocky Mount, N. C., has purchased a large lot of juniper timber in the White Marsh, near Whiteville, and is now having it surveyed and an estimate made.

Mrs. Edward Butcher and two children, of Petersburg, Va., are now on a visit to relatives in Whiteville. Mrs. Butcher is a daughter of Dr. N. M. Culbreth, now of Raleigh, but a former citizen of Wilmington. Mr. Butcher is manager of the Seward Trunk and Bag Factory, of Petersburg, one of the largest manufacturing enterprises of the kind in the South.

Mr. L. V. Grady, formerly of Wilmington, left Sunday for Raleigh, to look after some important legal business.——Mrs. Clarence Baldwin, of Florida, is spending some time with Mrs. David Baldwin.——A box supper was given at the home of Mr. Jeff Powell Saturday night for the benefit of the White Marsh church.

THE STATE NORMAL.

Members of the Faculty—Extension Work—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 27.—The faculty of the State Normal and Industrial College has in its number six new members: Prof. A. S. Hill, of the University of London, director of music; Miss Eva Bryan, M. A., Syracuse University, assistant in French; Miss Claudia Crumpton, of Chicago University, assistant in English; Miss Mary Daniels, of Columbia University, assistant in English; Miss Eva Washburn, of Wellesley College, assistant in Physical Culture, and Miss Mary Mullen, of the Atlanta Library School, assistant in the library.

The college has undertaken this year to do much in the way of extension work; to give the best thought of its faculty in their various departments to the people of North Carolina, thus bringing into close touch with each other the people of the State who gave the college and those in the college who are giving their best to it. The college plans to issue a certain number of bulletins during the year, each bulletin to contain material along some line of work carried on in the college of vital interest to all the people in the State. The first bulletin will treat of Domestic science, the discussion being made by Miss Minnie Jamison, the efficient head of the department of Domestic Science. There will be a bulletin on home decoration, one on home hygiene and one issued by the English department, which will suggest lines of study for the various literary clubs of the State.

The directors of the physical culture department are aiding in the extension work by taking charge of the physical culture in the Y. W. C. A. of Winston-Salem, instruction being given every Friday evening with the understanding that teachers from nearby schools and those preparing for teacher shall be received into the classes.

The college has also sent out under its auspices Miss Anna Mead Micheaux, formerly supervising teacher in the training schools, to be supervisor of elementary schools in Forsyth county. The money for the work is furnished by the Southern Educational Board. Besides supervising the elementary schools assisting the teachers in their work, Miss Micheaux will be of aid in any way that she can to the community. It is to be hoped that the results of this work will make every county in the State demand a supervisor of elementary schools and that an entirely new field of work will be opened to the graduates of the college where they will have latitude to allow them to apply the full benefits of their training.

Besides the plans for its extension work, the college has under consideration several other matters, among them the establishment of the unit system of requirements, the giving of one degree in specialized groups of study instead of the four degrees now given, the requirements of an elementary course in home economics for all students, and the teaching of pedagogical principles earlier in the course than at the present time. The college has in many ways the outlook for a year full of the most favorable results.

ROCKY MOUNT AFFAIRS.

Death in Richmond—Cotton Shipments—Father Whearty Returns.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, Sept. 27.—Many friends in this city learned with regret on Saturday of the death of Mr. Edmund S. Christian who died of typhoid fever at the Memorial hospital in Richmond on Saturday. Mr. Christian was 25 years old and was in the employ of the American Tobacco Co., in Richmond and up until a year ago he held a position with the branch of that company in this city.

Unusually active shipments of cotton from points within South Carolina are reported in the office of the Superintendent of the first division of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city and for the season of the year the shipments of the staple are unusually large. The crop from South Carolina, as handled by the Atlantic Coast Line is in the most part being routed to Wilmington and Norfolk, there to be given to cotton transports. This morning a report showed that there were over 200 carloads of cotton awaiting to be unloaded on the tracks of the Atlantic Coast Line in Wilmington alone. These are shipments of this season's cotton. The shipments to Norfolk, while smaller, are not materially less.

Mr. W. T. Bone, a traveling salesman, who is well known in this city, is seriously ill at his home No. 329 South Church street. Mr. Bone has been unable to leave his room for several days and according to the statement of the attending physicians he is dangerously ill.

Father Whearty, of the Catholic Church in this city, has recently returned from Montreal, Canada, where he attended the Eucharistic Congress. Rev. Father Whearty made one of the party from this State who were in attendance. In the party with Father Whearty were Father Price, of Nazareth, Father Irwin, of Newton Grove, and Father O'Brien, of Durham.

TAFT BACK TO CAPITAL.

Will Plunge Into Week of Hard Work With His Cabinet.

Columbus, O., Sept. 24.—After having spent four days among old friends and relations in Cincinnati, President Taft is speeding back to Washington to plunge into a week of hard work with his cabinet. He will arrive at the capital early tomorrow.

Mr. Taft will remain at the White House until next Saturday. During the week he will have all the members of his cabinet except Secretary of War Dickinson as his guests, and his consultations with his advisers will be almost continuous. Some of the cabinet officers are expected to meet the President on his arrival tomorrow, but the White House "stag party" will not be in full swing until Monday.

AUDITOR DIXON'S DEATH.

Speculation as to Successor—Council of State Passes Resolution.

(Special Star Tel.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 27.—While no official announcement has been made yet to that effect, it is understood that tomorrow evening, following the funeral of Maj. Dixon, a call will be issued by the Democratic State Chairman, A. H. Eller, for the State Democratic Executive Committee to meet Friday night September 30th, to decide upon a candidate for State Auditor to be voted for in the November elections, and that Governor Kitchen intends to commission whoever the committee may name to serve as Auditor until January when the choice of the November elections will be inducted into office.

No avowed candidates are mentioned here as yet. It is understood that Frank D. Hackett, of North Wilkesboro, who contested for the nomination two years ago will be a candidate. Capt. S. A. Ashe is also mentioned.

At a special session of the Council of State a resolution was adopted as follows: "In the death of Benjamin Franklin Dixon, State Auditor, the State lost one of her ablest and most loyal sons; a gallant soldier and patriotic statesman. He was a man of varied talent and rendered eminent service to his people as soldier, minister, physician, teacher, and statesman. We, his asociates, in the executive department who knew his worth feel most keenly his taking away. We realize the State's inestimable loss, and experience deep personal bereavement in the departure of one whose genial nature, lovable disposition and true friendship endeared him to all who came in contact with him and marked him the highest type of North Carolina manhood.

"To his family in their affliction we tender our heartfelt sympathy and request them to permit his remains to lie in state in the rotunda of the Capitol that those who knew and loved him may pay a last tribute to his memory.

"It is ordered as a mark of respect, that the State flag be half masted until after the interment, and that the Capitol be drapted in mourning for 30 days.

ENGINEER IMPROVING.

Mr. Wm. Myer Injured at Elrod—Negore's Strange Disappearance.

Rocky Mount, N. C. Sept. 27.—Since the wreck at Elrod about ten days ago Engineer Wiliam Myer has been in the Atlantic Coast Line relief Hospital at South Rocky Mount having suffered a broken leg in the accident. A report of his condition today, and recently, is to the effect that he is getting along as nicely as might be asked and that an improvement is gradually being noted. The news of his improvement will be welcomed by friends in this city and over the lines of the company.

The police have been asked to assist the family in a finding of Norman Whitley, a well to-do-colored employe of the Atlantic Coast Line, who disappeared from home on Happy Hill Monday night, Sept. 14th the night of pay day, and has not been seen nor heard of since. The negro was middle aged and was thought well of by the white race as well as by his own. He held a good position with the railroad company and for the lack of any reason why he should runaway, the members of his family and friends believe that he has been the victim of foul play. The negro went to his home on Happy Hill on the night of the date named and after leaving with his wife a major part of money just paid him by the railroad company, told that he was going to Frank Davis' nearby, and pay his house rent, having rented the house that he occupied from this man. The negro didn't return in several hours and a search was started but it was found that he never reached the home of the Davis negro, and he has not been seen nor heard of since. He had about $8 or $10 on his person at the time of his mysterious disappearance.

NASHVILLE AMERICAN SOLD.

Will be Consolidated With the Tennesseean—The New Owners.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 24.—The ownership of the Nashville American passed today to Luke Lea, of Nashville, and associates, who also control and operate the Nashville Tennesseean. It is understood that the two newspapers will be consolidated within the next few days.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 24.—Affidavits were filed with the committee tonight from persons who are recorded as having voted in Norfolk county in the primary, but who declare they did not vote. In an affidavit filed, one man, it is stated that he was not qualified to vote. It was stated tonight that one of the sensational charges to be made by William A. Young on Tuesday will be that an alleged absconder and fugitive from justice was "voted in Portsmouth, where Maynard received a majority of 1.147.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Healthy Mothers

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health for the mother. This supreme crisis of life finding her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if Mother's Friend is used before the coming of baby, and the healthy woman can remain a healthy mother. It is the only remedy that perfectly and thoroughly prepares the system for healthy motherhood, and brings about a natural and easy consummation of the term. Women who use Mother's Friend are always saved much suffering when the little one arrives, and recover more quickly, and with no ill effects, or chronic troubles. Every expectant mother should safeguard her health by using Mother's Friend, thus preparing her physical condition for the hour of motherhood. This medicine is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

COTTON MARKET STILL ACTIVE

Further Advance in Prices on an Increasing Volume of Outside Buying—Bullish Estimates—General Conditions.

New York, Sept. 27.—The cotton market continued active during today's trading with further advance in prices on an increasing volume of outside buying and trade support which was evidently inspired by bullish estimates of the crop and the apparent readiness with which early receipts are being absorbed in the South.

The close was firm at a net advance of 9 to 20 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 2 points to an advance of 3 points, near months responding to indifferent cables and private advices from Liverpool reporting that all negotiations had been broken off between master spinners and operatives in Manchester, while later months again showed evidences of a good speculative demand, accompanied by bullish estimates of the crop. Prices quickly worked up to a net advance of about 10 to 15 points, and while this bulge was followed by a reaction of 8 to 9 points under realizing, the market continued very firm, selling into new high ground for the day during the afternoon on a continued broadening of outside demand largely from Western sources and renewed covering. Around 13.50 for January there was a great deal of cotton for sale; enough to check the advance, but barely sufficient to cause any reaction, and closing prices were within 2 or 3 points of the top with a good buying movement in progress right up to the end of business. Weather reports were again considered favorable but the very bullish average of private crop reports, many of which indicate a yield but little if any larger than last year, appears to have made a considerable impression on sentiment in connection with the failure of the early movement to cause any depression in Southern spot prices as yet. The Southern spot markets officially reported today were unchanged to 1-16c higher. The government's condition report will be issued next Monday and is expected to show considerable deterioration for the month, although few traders believe that the figures as compared with last year will be low enough to substantiate the more sensationally bullish crop estimates now circulating in the trade.

Receipts at the ports today 83,530 bales against 63,059 last week and 87,655 last year. For the week 325,000 bales against 241,946 last week and 380,881 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 6,338 bales against 4,775 last year, and at Houston 24,915 bales against 13,731 last year.

13.60; middling gulf 13.85; sales, 2,300 bales. Futures opened steady and closed firm.

READING FACTOR IN STOCKS

Congestion of Speculative Operations Had Repressive Effect on the Market—Traders Watching Movement in Reading.

New York, Sept. 27.—The congestion of the speculative operations in Reading today and the suspicion of artificiality in the movement of that stock had a repressive rather than a stimulating effect on the general speculative movement. The tactics of the traders consisted altogether in a watch on the trend of the movement in Reading and in attempts to follow the movements in that stock or guiding their ventures in other stocks in consonance with the fluctuations in Reading

The news regarding Reading developments was as vague and as various as yesterday.

U. S. Steel surrendered its usual primacy of the market to Reading, with a volume less than one-half that of the latter stock with Union Pacific a poor third in the amount of the dealings. Reading's proportion to the whole market reached 37 per cent. Prices at the end of the day were at the lowest and showed trivial net losses.

The banking community studied with great interest the compilation of National reports to the comptroller as of September 1st, although the subject was not much discussed in the stock market itself. The showing was regarded as demonstrating the wisdom of the drag which was applied to the extension of credits following the appearance of the Spring abstract of bank reports. The progress made towards rectification is viewed with satisfaction, but opinion is not convinced that the process is complete. The influence of the October settlements continued to harden interest rates in the immediate money market.

Money on call rose to 2 1-4 per cent. Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,731,000. United States bonds were unchanged in the bid price on call. Total sales for the day 484,800 shares, including Sugar 200; Tobacco 200; A. C. L. 500; C. & O. 18,800; L. & N. 600; Reading 181,200; Sloss-Sheffield 200; Southern 200; do preferred 200; U. P. 71,200; U. S. Steel 80,800; V. C. C. 200.

COTTON MARKET WAS FIRM.

Sharp Demand Features the Day—Trade is More Bullish.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Sept. 27.—The market today was firm from the opening to the close under a sharp demand from the same sources that have been buying for the past week. Just at the close the market showed a tendency to react, but this was checked by a large buying order for October from one of the American bulls now in Liverpool.

The temper of the trade is more bullish as the market advances, with many predictions as to the low condition which will be given by the next bureau next week. Higher prices are expected in Liverpool tomorrow, where it is believed the effect of the low crop estimates will soon be felt in an increased demand from spinners. That market should advance 4 to 5 points tomorrow. HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

MOONSHINE IN WAYNE.

Two Stills Captured in Buck Swamp Township Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Sept. 27.—United States Deputy Smith reported the capture this afternoon of two moonshine stills in Buck Swamp township. One of the stills was up and running, the other was in course of construction. Operatives of stills, Judge Smith and Daniel Jacobs, both colored, were captured.

The Lash of a Fiend

would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Robert R. Bellamy.

ACADEMY

The form of amusement dearest to the hearts of Wilmington theatre-goers is the musical comedy. Hence, the news that "The Show Girl" well described as a big musical tomfoolery, will be at the Academy of Music Friday night has aroused much interest.

"The Show Girl" is one of the brightest, merriest and most tuneful of successes. It is a musical play that is chock full of gems, just such as are whistled on the streets and hummed in the homes, and it possesses a plot that presents a laugh with about every line. This well known musical comedy perpits of gorgeous dressing, handsome stage settings, beautiful electrical effects and dashing stage pictures. The company that will be seen in the big success at the Academy has taken advantage of all this to the fullest extent, so a performance rich in every way may well be expected. The plot hinges around a fascinating show girl, which is an attractive subject within itself, and the chief feature of mirth is a magic cap. He or she who wears the cap has but to make a wish to have that wish fulfilled. The extravagant wishes that are made, with instant fulfillment, are decidedly ludicrous and will cause the audience to howl with laughter. This plot of fun is surrounded by beautiful stage pictures and at intervals, close together, too, there pops in brilliant, fetching musical numbers. In addition to the regular splendid list of numbers, both songs and dances, many features have been interpolated, which enhances the show in attractiveness and makes it a big whirl of fun and sweet sound. The chorus work is said to be especially strong.

By special arrangements the highest price for the engagement here will be but $1 and seats for the performance will go on sale at Plummer's tomorrow morning.

Big Star and an All-Star Cast Coming.

Jefferson DeAngelis, fresh from metropolitan triumph in the enactment of "Koko", in the all-star cast of the "Mikado" revival at the Casino lately, will be seen at the Academy of Music next Monday night in "The Beauty Spot," a new comic opera by Reginald DeKoven and Joseph Herbert.

Next to the "Spot", and the star, the most striking feature of "The Beauty Spot" is the chorus. It is doubtful if the local stage has ever been adorned with a more shapely and handsome bevy of show girls than those which hover about under the scenery whenever the occasion offers. The story concerns an artist who paints a picture of a married woman that almost loses him his sweetheart, but the girl finally comes around in a sweet willing fashion, and everything ends with a kiss-sealed happiness and a delightfully clever solution to the story of the most talked about painting.

Reginald DeKoven's music, comprising over 20 numbers, shows not only his skill and technique, but his fruitfulness in melodious invention, and the knack he has acquired of providing operetta entertainment.

Mr. Joseph Herbert has provided a book which is slightly risque, but always funny and in no way offensive.

The cast includes most of the original people in the New York engagement of seven months, among whom are George J. MacFarlane, Viola Gillette, Florence Martin, Joseph Fay, Charles W. Meyer, Inez Dean, Arvid Paulson, Ida Vantine and 60 others.

At the Bijou Today.

Three fine pictures will be shown as the bill at the popular Bijou today. They are "Max Has to Change," another of those delightful Max Linder comedies; "Back to Life After 2,000 Years," a comedy portraying what might happen if an ancient Roman was to appear in modern Rome, and "The Judgment of the Mighty Deed," showing the world's old story of man's fight for his mate.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Brooklyn, Sept. 27.—In a whirlwind finish Brooklyn made it three straight from Pittsburg today. Up to the ninth the Superbas had only made one hit off Camnitz, then three hits and a muff by Campbell, with Coulson's timely single tied the score. In the tenth a pass, Stark's sacrifice and singles by Bergen and Erwin won the game.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Washington and Chicago divided a double-header today, Washington losing the first 0 to 2, and taking the second 3 to 2. Both Scott and Gray were miserly in the first game, allowing but two hits, but Gray was responsible for both of the Chicago runs, making two wild pitches. Olmstead was driven to cover in the second game, Washington scoring all their three runs in the first two innings.
